Trustees Demand 'More Facts' Before Vote on Unification

". . . We realize the time that has been spent on this, but we have been given nothing specific, only a series of platitudes on the advantages of a big system. We want more facts," Philip Bush, candidate for the Orinda School Board, told the County Committee for School District Reorganization Wednesday night.

His statements came in the midst of a long wrangle over board members should vote on whether they consider unification in general as desirable, or merely on whether it should be studied further—and whether the boards should vote as units, or by individual ballot.

After two and a half hours, the 11-member reorganization committee and its "augmented" board, including members of the Acalanes High School District, and Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Moraga and Canyon Districts voted to continue the study of unification of central county school districts "in all its aspects."

BUT LOUIS AMBLER of the Orinda School Board and others made it clear that they did not wish to vote on favoring the concept of unification of school districts until specific figures on the advantages or disadvantages are available.

Committee Chairman Dr. Jack Shahbazian opened the meeting with a recitation of what his 11-man group has determined to be the effect on the districts of a general form of unification, and later he cited the general advantages of unification, taking statements of University of California Professor Edgar Morphet.

But differences of opinion became apparent when W. B. Scarborough, Lafayette School District board member, made a motion from the audience that the committee begin a study of unification of the Acalanes District area into three separate districts.

One district would include the Walnut Creek District plus the part of the Lafayette District which lies within the Del Valle High School attendance area.

THE SECOND District would include the balance of the Lafayette District plus the Rheem Center area, corresponding to the present Acalanes plus the future Rheem Center High School attendance areas.

The third district would consist of Orinda and Canyon Districts, plus the remainder of Moraga, corresponding to the Miramonte plus proposed Bear Creek area High Schools.

The second to the motion went begging, as Ambler interjected that his board was in no position to vote upon any such proposal, and had not been notified of the motion early enough to consider it as a board.

He insisted that no vote should be taken on favoring or opposing the concept of unification, and that the only possible vote should determine whether the study should be continued.

ALEX LINDSAY, Walnut Creek School Board chairman, announced the willingness of his group to vote on the concept of unification, but later Walnut Creek trustee Shirley Madsen, anxious to end the long discussion, spoke in favor of Scarborough's motion.

Committee Chairman Shahbazian repeated several times that he and his committee are anxious to develop facts about unification, but did not want to be placed in the position of favoring or opposing it.

He added that he is willing to continue the study which has been conducted for a full year, if the trustees decided that more facts are needed.

Jack Pedder, Lafayette attorney, finally brought the motion which won the agreement of the audience, and a show of hands carried it. This indicates that studies will be held on the "three way split" unification and unification into one big district, which has already been studied.

A COMMITTEEMAN suggested that the continued study be limited to six months, but this was watered down by Shahbazian to "if possible."

A similar meeting of the "augmented" committee will be held April 29 at Acalanes High School.

Unification Facts Offered: Bush Asks Questions

Dr. Jack Shahbazian, chairman of the County Committee on School District Reorganization, offered several general conclusions concerning unification of school districts within the Acalanes High School District area, Wednesday night.

He also offered arguments in favor of unification, as published by a University of California professor.

And Phil Bush, candidate for the Orinda School Board, insisted that more facts were needed and offered a number of questions.

SHAHBAZIAN'S comments:

Only the Acalanes and Canyon Districts are not on state aid, and unification would probably not upset the bonding capacity situations in the other districts.

The tax rates vary from 1.711 in Canyon to 2.864 in Lafayette District, with an average of 2.4, but "It will not present too much of a problem."

Assessed value of the Walnut Creek district is $35 millions, Orinda, $26.7 millions and Lafayette, $25.1 millions, or $85 millions combined.

THE CONDITION of buildings and classrooms in all districts is generally very good, and though the Lafayette school is among the oldest, it still has many years of service ahead.

The Acalanes District provides buses on contract to the Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda districts, and they plus the high school district buses cover 297,000 miles per year.

Enrollment projections: Acalanes: 4159 to 6855 in 1965; Lafayette: 4150 to 5650 in '65; Orinda, 3050 to 4909 in '65; Walnut Creek: 4204 to 5624 in '62.

The total ADA count, for all districts in 1956-57 was about 12,500. Mt. Diablo Unified District has 22,000; Berkeley, 15,000; Oakland, 54,000; San Francisco, 82,000; Sacramento, 27,000; Stockton, 25,000; Fresno, 31,000.

TEACHERS salaries would generally tend to take the upper level average for all the districts unified.

The augmented committee will determine if the unified board will have five or seven members. Mt. Diablo has five.

Professor Edgar Morfet of the University of California listed unification advantages as follows:

One superintendent and governing board, uniform educational opportunity, broader and more comprehensive program, more flexible use of facilities, better grade organization, improved personnel policy.

MORE EFFECTIVE transportation, simplified budgeting and administration.

Bush asked the following specific questions:

What will be the difference for the taxpayers, if any, on a five-year projection? On the basis of three districts? On the basis of one big district?

What are the comparative advantages of having one big district, and three separate districts?

WHAT WOULD be the cost per ADA, under all alternatives?

Will the requirements under the state for applying for funds to build new classrooms change?

Will there be any salary schedule changes, specifically?

If a district votes against unification, must it go in, if the others vote yes?

ARE THERE other specific advantages?

Bush emphasized that these and other questions will be asked by the residents, and he declared that he wants to be ready for them.

$10,000 May be Collected For Danny's Heart Surgery

The "Dollars for Danny" fund is nearing the $10,000 mark.

As of yesterday more than $8,000 was recorded in Danny's name at the Central Valley National Bank, Orinda.

Mrs. Harold Engman, co-chairman of the drive to provide a delicate heart operation for the little boy, said "we hope—and pray—we will get $10,000."

WORD WAS received yesterday that an associate of the surgeon who will perform the operation is on his way from Chicago to confer with Larry Isola, the boy's father.

Danny was a "blue baby," and has transposed blood vessels leading to and from his heart. Unless he has an operation soon, doctors say he will die.

THE ONLY doctor who can perform the operation is Thomas G. Baffes of Children's Hospital, Chicago.

A national hotel chain has offered a week of "no-charge" rent for Danny's parents and half-rate during the balance of their stay in Chicago.

THE CONTRA Costa Travel Service of Concord is paying for Danny's first class air transportation to and from Chicago.

All the good friends of Danny's were thanked yesterday by Mrs. Harold Engman and Mrs. Clavin Schaefer, co-chairmen of the drive.

THEY INCLUDE Clarence Betz, William Polk and committee members Mrs. Raymond Wulfert, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dettling, Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Paul Handlery, Mrs. Ted Harrer, Mrs. Jack McCorkel, Edward Tilton, Mrs. Howard Brazee, and Mrs. Cooky Lavagetto.

Others are Hubert Voight and Postmaster Laura Mallary.

SPECIAL THANKS also went to the Greenwood Press, Oakland, for preparing posters placed around towns.

They were distributed by Mrs. Kenneth Dettling, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Jack Block, Warren Dempster and Mrs. Paul Handlery.

Envelopes were printed by Len Bonnington and donated by Millar Simon.

SEVEN HOURS of radio time and the efforts of Ralph Emery of KKIS also aided the cause, Mrs. Engman said. Ralph put on a Talk-a-thon which brought in many added dollars.

On KNBC, the "Listen Ladies" show of Budd Heyde's helped, too, Mrs. Schaefer said. At KROW Ray Yeager put in a plug for Danny and the "Captain Satellite" show on television (Channel 2) helped boost interest in the little lad's plight.

The Thomas Stewart family gave advice to the committee.

The Stewart's are the parents of David Stewart, the 29-month old Sharp Park boy who is recuperating from the same operation.

Hubert Voight prepared a letter that went to residents on Larry's mail route and members of the Orinda Country Club.

ALL MAILING envelopes were addressed by the Loop Realty Company. They were "stuffed" by Calene Schaefer, Mrs. Ginger Basom, Mrs. Schaefer and Mrs. Lightner and Mrs. Russell.

SOFT DRINKS were served at the various committee meetings through the courtesy of and with the compliments of T&D Liquors.

Casa Orinda donated generously to the fund. So did the Orinda Country Club members to the tune of $1,148.

CONTRIBUTIONS came from the entire Bay Area, Mrs. Engman said. One was airmailed from Hawaii.

Rooster, Hen Invite All To Attend Barnyard Party

Colorful invitations to the "Barnyard Benefit" will be mailed today throughout Orinda, according to Mrs. C. W. Brock, general chairman of the unique event scheduled May 9.

DESIGNED BY Jane Graveson, art-talented senior at Miramonte, and featuring amusing drawings of a demure hen and cocky rooster, the invitations disclose that the "Barnyard Benefit" will be a one act "play" presented in four hours.

With proceeds to benefit Orinda school, oldest in the community, "Act I" of the upcoming social event will be dancing from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. in two scenes, "The Barn" (Orinda Motors) and "The Yard" (Phair's Lot). Cast of characters will be the sponsoring group, Orinda Parents' Club.

REMINISCENT OF New York's famed Savoy Ballroom, there will be two jazz bands.

In reply to inquiries received, Mrs. Brock said today that Orinda residents may bring guests from Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco and Marin County providing tickets are obtained in advance from ticket chairmen Mrs. William Gilmore, 33 Acacia Drive, and Mrs. Gordon French, 33 Stanton, in Orinda.

THOSE who do not receive an invitation within the next few days, may contact Mrs. Brock directly at 51 La Cuesta in Orinda.

Supervisors OK Reconstruction

Supervisor M. F. Nielsen announced that the Board of Supervisors today called for bids for the resurfacing of St. Mary's Road from Moraga Highway to South Lucille Lane, as another step in the completion of Bond Project K of the 1952 Tudor Report.

The project calls for repair of base failures and resurfacing of the existing roadway for a distance of 2.75 miles.

THE WORK DONE on this project will provide a smoother driving surface and reduce maintenance costs on this section of highway.

The estimated cost of the work to be done under this contract is $56,780.

Plans for the remainder of St. Mary's Road from South Lucille Lane to Moraga Road in Lafayette are being prepared and will be awarded in two contracts.

THE FIRST contract will call for the improvement of St. Mary's Road from Moraga Road to Glenside Drive, including reconstruction of the Glenside intersection.

Plans for this work are being prepared by the George Nolte Engineering Company, under the direction of the Public Works Department.

This contract will be advertised later this spring.

The remainder of St. Mary's Road from Glenside to South Lucille is tentatively scheduled for reconstruction during the spring of 1960. This portion will be developed to provide a level of service commensurate with its future status as a local feeder to the Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

Relax! H-Bomb Plant is Rumor!

LITTERBUG POSTER WINNER Pete Kimball (center) is congratulated by Rod Bedayn (right) as Greg Bedayn looks on. Pete and Neil Woodruff drew the poster judged the best in the competition. Contest was part of the anti-litterbug campaign of the four Orinda garden clubs and the Orinda Beautification Committee.

Everything Denied by Atomic Energy, EBMUD

By JACK SEYMOUR

Rumors that an H-bomb plant will be constructed in Orinda were flatly discounted today by Admiral T. Earle Hipp, assistant secretary for the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

The word has been circulating that an H-bomb installation will be built adjacent to the planned EBMUD Briones Valley reservoir.

"Preposterous!" said the admiral in an official statement to The Sun.

DONALD ANDERSON, president of the Orinda Association, said the group is "opposed to the location of a facility for manufacturing or storing nuclear materials within this area . . ."

He added, "the possibility of a poisonous discharge of radioactive water or smoke into our drinking water or air is too great a risk to our community."

Admiral Hipp said the rumors started when word leaked out that a huge burning program will take place on the EBMUD site later this year.

Trees and underbrush will be burned to provide a "training exercise" for central Contra Costa County firemen, the Admiral said.

He also said the district would refuse to "lease or sell any property to the Atomic Energy Commission."

HOWEVER, informed sources pointed out that the commission has power to "appropriate anything, anywhere . . . at any time."

Rodney Southwick, public relations officer of AEC in Oakland, said "We know of no plans at this time to build a plant in Orinda."

Worried Orindans have been phoning The Sun to get information about the rumors which evidently have been circulating for several days. The Sun has been checking to find out the facts.

TELEGRAMS and phone calls have gone to Congressman John Baldwin in Washington, according to one report.

The messages have "demanded that Mr. Baldwin contact John McCone (chairman of the AEC) and investigate the matter fully."

Anderson also said, "If this building is for clerical or statistical purposes, we would have to determine the desires of the residents of Orinda before assuming any position.

"The Orinda Association, although it has no status in so far as municipal government goes, represents the community in all matters of mutual interest and concern."

Anderson said that an emergency meeting of the directors may have to be called, at which time every interested resident would be urged to attend.

No Criminal Charges Against Gill

The Contra Costa County Grand Jury completed its investigations into the operation of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District Wednesday and urged the Board of Supervisors to exercise more effective control over the fire districts in the county.

In a resolution to the county board, the grand jury noted "there has been criticism and complaints presented to the jury concerning the "mismanagement" of the east county district."

"These complaints have been especially directed against Gerould L. Gill, fire chief and commissioner of the district," Edward Valentino, foreman, said.

"The grand jury investigated these complaints and found, in some instances the use of poor discretion by Gill," Valentino continued.

"However," he commented, "there was insufficient evidence presented to warrant criminal charge against him," Valentino added.

The grand jury resolved:

"Whereas, there has been criticism and complaints presented to this grand jury of instances of mismanagement in the East Contra Costa County Fire Protection District and especially directed against Gerould Gill, fire chief and commissioner: and

"Whereas, the grand jury has investigated this criticism and complaints and found some instances of the exercise of poor discretion by Gill, and

"Whereas, there are current plans by the Board of Supervisors and County Administrator to review and revise the entire county fire protection system;

"Now therefore be it resolved that the evidence presented before the body is insufficient to warrant any criminal charges against Gill, and

"Be it further resolved that the Board of Supervisors institute a program of closer control and supervision of all fire districts; and

"Be it further resolved that the review and revision of the county fire districts is recommended and encouraged, and

"Be it further resolved this resolution be forwarded to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors."

Gill has ordered the advertisements stopped and changes be effected in the billing of fire district business and personal telephone calls.

Newcomers Club Plans Bridge

New members recently welcomed into the Orinda Newcomers Club are Mrs. John Pennington, Mrs. James Shaffer and Mrs. John Wurts.

Mrs. Arthur Flanagan, President, has appointed a nominating committee to draw up a list of candidates for new officers which will be presented at the regular meeting in April.

The committee consists of Mrs. Marvin Yost, Chairman, Mrs. Wilfred Clearman and Mrs. James Nicols.

A COUPLES bridge will be held April 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scott on Sunrise Hill Road. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Arnold Thompson at CL 4-5561.

The April Board Meeting of the Newcomers will be held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Westerback on Warford Terrace. Mrs. Flanagan requests that all officers and chairmen be present.

Evening bridge will be at the Bates Boulevard home of Mrs. C. E. Toland, Jr. on April 8. Coffee and dessert will be served at all events.

THE ORINDA Newcomers Club is growing by leaps and bounds. If you are new in the Orinda area and are interested in making new friends and joining in our social events, you may receive further information concerning our group by contacting Mrs. L. W. Chaney, Membership Chairman, at DR 6-4648.

Olive Trees Planted in Beautification Campaign

Olive trees were planted at the entrance to Orinda Saturday morning by hard-working Jaycees, as part of the civic landscaping plan of the Orinda Beautification Committee.

The committee wants to make Orindans proud of their town. It is tryin to restore a little of the rural charm the Crossroads once had (back in the days when) and also by planting olive trees to bring back the Spanish atmosphere appropriate to a town with Spanish-named streets.

THIS IS only a start. The committee hopes to continue the trees through the underpass to where the Shell station and parking area are now established.

A future project which the committee recommends for some civic group is the development of the right-hand corner next to the stop sign coming into Orinda. This is state property and is the corner of a creek.

This land could be filled in and planted and a "Welcome to Orinda" sign placed here. It could even have a fountain!

JAYCEES and committee members digging holes and planting were Eric Nielsen, John Miller, Fred Cummings (and children), Clair Harding, Bill Cooper, Dr. Ralph Hall, and Paul Pollaczek.

Co-chairman and principal planter was Stanley Allen of the Chamber of Commerce.

Raffi Bedayn made the redwood frames for the street trees and also railroad tie frames for the two fruitless mulberry trees planted in Lucky Market parking lot. (Lucky has donated generously to the landscaping project.)

ADDITIONAL organizations not mentioned last week who have donated olive trees to the project: Hilltop Garden Club, Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association and Juinor Chamber of Commerce.

The committee wishes to put a simple redwood placque at the base of each olive tree. It hopes Miramonte art classes will letter the placques.

Anyone who wishes to help on this project should contact Mrs. Clinton Scarich, CL 4-3169.

THE COMMITTEE feels, also, that the weed-grown traffic island at the intersection of Moraga Highway with Camino Pablo should be next on the landscaping program.

If some garden club or group of gardeners wishes to plant this with low-growing, drought-resistant junipers, the committee will make all the arrangements with the county public works department, and ask the fire department to water this triangle at the same time that it waters the olive trees.

New Car Insurance Plan Will Cut Costs for Careful Motorists

A new plan, which will reduce automobile insurance rates by 20 per cent was introduced yesterday by the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Automobile Underwriters Association.

Drivers with a three-year record of no accidents and no moving traffic violations would be eligible for the savings in premiums.

IN CENTRAL Contra Costa the present rate, according to the national board is $141.40. The "accident free" rate would be $113.60 for cars which are not driven by any male under 25 years of age.

For cars which are driven or owned by males under 25 the rate would be reduced from $356.20 to $285.40, according to the plan.

Although these are the savings offered by the two underwriting associations, some direct insurance writing organizations have lower rates. Observers indicate that similar savings will be introduced by these companies.

Motorists with single accidents or violations will pay present rates and those with two or more will pay higher rates, according to the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Automobile Underwriters Association, the nation's two major rating groups that developed the plan.

CALLED THE SAFE Driver Insurance Plan, it will affect 70 per cent of car owners and will be put into operation May 1.

The Safe Driver rate could apply to approximately half of the private passenger car owners in the county.

The plan, which will be used by over 200 insurance companies in this state, represents an entirely new concept by relating convictions for trafic violations to automobile insurance costs.

As of now, the new plan will be available in California only and can be obtained through independent insurance agents and brokers.

"Without restricting the availability of insurance protection or undermining the fundamental 'spread of risk' law of insurance, the Safe Driver Insurance Plan will answer the public demand, so often expressed in the press, for a special reward for the best drivers, combined with a realistic extra charge for traffic violators and those who have accidents," the two rating groups said.

"THE FUNDAMENTAL truth underlying this plan," the groups said, "is the demonstrated fact, proven by official statistics of law enforcement agencies, that most accidents involve violations, and that most violators are likely to have accidents that will cost insurance ratepayers money.

"Never before have insurance companies been so realistic as officially to recognize the direct relationship between trafifc law violations and the subsequent accidents that result in claims. Yet, recognition of this relationship is the only way to reduce rates for the truly deserving family groups, despite the ever-increasing costs of deaths, injuries, time off the job, rehabilitation and the auto repairs that are the results of accidents."

The flat 20 per cent reduction for those families and individuals who qualify will apply to liability and medical payments protection and collision coverage (protects your own car).

Both groups pointed out that those families where a member has had an accident or been convicted of a moving traffic violation will not appreciate having to pay the extra charge which can amount to a maximum of 100 per cent for those with five accidents or five moving violation convictions in three years.

"BUT WHEN automobile insurance is a virtual necessity for most families," the groups said, "the insurance industry has a moral obligation to do its best for those who conscientiously obey the laws which are adopted for the benefit of all of us. Conversely, those who consistently disregard the laws should be able to provide for their own protection, but they deesrve no special rate consideration."

The concept of anticipating losses which is incorporated in this new plan is fully substantiated by a recent study prepared by the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

The report states:

"IF A DRIVER does have one or more abstracts (records of conviction) in the record, it places him in a definite minority category and his chances of having an accident eventually are far greater than if he did not have any abstracts in the record."

"An 'accident' is defined as any automobile accident involving the applicant or any operator of the vehicle resident in the same household while operating any private passenger type automobile resulting in damage to any property, including his own, in excess of $50 or in bodily injury or death.

"A 'conviction' is defined in the plan as any moving traffic violation for which the applicant or any operator of the vehicle resident in the same household has been convicted as a result of operating any private passenger type automobile.

"In a case where an accident results in a conviction this will be regarded as a single offense.

"AN AUTOMOBILE will not be eligible for a reduction unless the applicant and all operators in the same household have been licensed for three years. Where the applicant or an operator has not been licensed for that length of time the rate for such a car will remain at the present level. This is obviously necessary because the whole plan is based upon three years of driving experience of the insurance buyer."

The two groups explained that drivers will be assessed points for each accident or violation conviction. Those with no points in three years will receive the 20 per cent reduction; those with one point, representing one accident or violation, will pay the rate they now pay; those with two points will pay 25 per cent more and on up to 100 per cent more for those with five points.

Points will be assessed for accidents regardless of fault, the organizations said. "In order to make the benefits of the Safe Driver Insurance Plan available to the very substantial number of accident free drivers in California," they said, "it is necessary to avoid all the expensive investigation and time consumed in determining fault for insurance purposes.

"To try to determine the always controversial matter of fault would use most of the dollars that will permit reductions for so many safe drivers. No matter what method for determining faul might be adopted, it could not satisfy everybody."

Administrator to Study Sheriff's Personnel Hike

The county administrator's office launched an intensive analysis of the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office following requests for additional personnel by Sheriff Walter F. Young.

Young asked for 36 additional men and the promotion of 22 others to give proper county wide police coverage to the growing county.

YOUNG HAS SOME 110 men in his department at the present, but estimated the additional personnel and increases would cost some $180,000 per year.

Under Young's plan the new personnel would include 21 deputies for patrol, three at the county jail farm and one in the juvenile division.

In addition he asked for three detectives, one sergeant, a lieutenant to operate the county jail and jail farm and three cooks plus three clerk typists.

Included in Young's request to the administrator's office was that 22 grade I deputies—guard and jailer—be promoted to the patrol duty classification (Grade II).

HE COMMENTED the lower classification should be abolished since he already has 62 grade II deputies, but 40 per cent of them are assigned to other than patrol work, such as bailiff, administrative and clerical duties.

Young noted many of these men may be physically unfit for reassignment to patrol because of overweight, age, and/or physical handicap.

Joseph P. McBrien, administrator, said his office would conduct a detailed analysis of the sheriff's office and would report on the future needs and projections of service which the department will have to provide to the county.

McBRIEN NOTED, however, it would be impossible that the study would be completed in time for the county board of supervisors to act on the request by July 1.

McBrien indicated the areas of study would include the proper use of present manpower and the possibility of personnel shifting.

County Termed Gambling Mecca By Rodeo Judge

"Contra Costa County has become the mecca for gamblers."

So spoke Judge Louis L. Edmunds of the Rodeo Judicial District in asking that cardrooms be outlawed in the county, or at least controlled.

EDMUNDS said he understands cardroom operators and gambling interests have even organized a shuttle taxi service to bring the card players into town, and said that round-the-clock poker sessions are continuing for two and three days at stretch in Rodeos four card rooms.

He said two more cardrooms are planning to open.

Edmunds said that the gamblers have begun flocking to Rodeo during the past two years, as cities in West Contra Costa County and Solano County either banned cardrooms altogether or ordered a 2 a.m. closing.

"We used to have small family-type cardrooms in Rodeo," Edmunds said, "but now they are getting play from all over the Bay Area. As a result we're getting a lot of people we don't want in Rodeo."

"The (gambling) situation is getting out of hand," he said.

Edmunds, who discussed the problem last week with the Rodeo Chamber of Commerce, said he is drafting a request that the county establish a 2 a.m. closing law for all cardrooms in Contra Costa. He said chamber directors tentatively approved his request.

Women Realtors Hold Special Easter Meet

A festive and gala Easter party meeting was held by the Women's Division of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board March 25 at El Nido in Lafayette.

Special presentation of awards by Zoe Woolsey honored six members with past president's pins. Honored were Pat Drew, Midge Graham, Mildred Applegate, Mildred Tinker and Thelma Braly.

A fashion show was presented with models from Lafayette's House of Charm displaying costumes from Claudy's Dress Shop in Lafayette.

Speaker was Earl Nightingale, lecturer and author, who spoke on "The Strangest Secret."

Copy May Not Be Enough

Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce members who will want more than one copy of the 65-page Market Survey will have to call the Chamber offices by 5 p.m., today, Chamber Manager Bill Francis said this week.

Willful Failures To Be Expelled In Acalanes District

Acalanes High School District students classed as "willful, habitual academic failures" will be expelled by district trustees, upon a recommendation to that effect from the principals, it was announced.

Such "failures" are "the result of willfully failing on the part of the pupil to the extent that he has received a grade of "F" in three or more subjects, or in 50 per cent of the assigned program for that report card period."

The board will be guided by reports of counselors and guidance authorities and recommendations of the principal.

In adopting the policy board president William Lee emphasized that the policy is not directed at the student "who is trying but possibly failing, but rather at the indifferent or undisciplined student who willfully flunks."

Scottsdale Unit 2 Gets Commission OK

The Walnut Creek Planning Commission last week approved plans for Scottsdale Unit No. 2, which will have some 34 homes on the southwest side of Walnut Avenue, southeast of Ygnacio Valley Road.

The master plan for the entire development of some 180 homes on 60 acres was approved earlier by the city, and the action appeared to be a confirmation of the earlier action, due to the lapse of six months.

William Anderson, who represented developers Louis Scott and Gordon Ball told the planners that the entire project involves about $1 million in land values and development alone, without the houses, and he urged approval of the second unit.

Unit No. 1 is in the construction stages.

Planning Director Les Foley said that although normally a tentative map approved must be reconsidered after six months if a final map is not concluded, the Scottsdale approval originally was written in ordinance form.

The planners also approved for a one year period an application by Rancho San Miguel Swim Club to hold swimming classes at the 2727 San Carlos Drive site.

Gunther Steinberg spoke for the club, and answered questions.

Planner James Mitchell at first voted against the application, on the basis that he interpreted the motion made by planner Harold Larsen to restrict the number of pupils.

Acalanes' Teachers Get $103,000 Wage Increases

Acalanes High School District teachers got a $103,000 pay increase this week.

The board of trustees refused to approve the faculty members' original request for a $153,000 boost.

The teachers asked for a 14.6 per cent increase. The board settled for 9.8 per cent.

The new schedule sets the minimum salary at $5,000 with a maximum at $8,850 aftef 14 years of service.

At the board meeting last Monday night at district offices, trustees directed Superintendent Neil M. Parsons to work with the school architect on the Lafayette Youth Association's request that it be allowed to install lights on the junior league baseball diamond at Acalanes.

Le Roy Middlekauff, J. C. Van Matre and L. G. McNulty of the association presented the association's request and preliminary drawings for the proposed installation.

Trustees accepted two low bids: one from Champion Plumbing for installation of sprinklers at Miramonte High, Orinda, for $4595; the second for installation of a sewer line at the new Del Valle campus in Tice alley for $38,164 by Martin Brothers.

School board members invited Assemblyman Jerome Waldie to a discussion of local education problems and registered their opposition to Assembly Bill 1000 which would penalize districts receiving federal funds under Federal Law 874.

Elks Will Install Barrett

Rowland H. Barrett, owner of a Walnut Creek dental laboratory, will be installed as exalted ruler of Walnut Creek Elks Lodge No. 1811, Wednesday evening.

Installation ceremonies will be conducted by a corps of Grand Lodge officers led by Dr. Raymond V. Burk, past exalted ruler of the Walnut Creek lodge.

A free dinner for members of the organization will precede the meeting.

Other officers to be installed include Harold Turner, leading knight; Dean Spurgeon, loyal knight; Al Malnick, lecturing knight; Reed Bells, esquire; Gene Edlen, chaplain; Floyd Burror, inner guard; Louis Freitas, tiler; Horace C. Cherrington, secretary; Jack Lynch, treasurer; and Leo Vingo, organist.

New trustees to be inducted are past exalted ruler James McGeehon and Joseph Murphy, who will join holdover trustees Frank Marshall, Charles Gartin and Frank Salfingere.

The new head of the Elks organization has long been active in Walnut Creek affairs and recently has been president of the Walnut Festival Association and the Walnut Creek Rotary Club.

Contractor Faces Four Law Suits

A series of law suits were filed in Alameda County Superior Court Tuesday against Contractor-Developer D. L. Goforth of Lafayette.

The actions were filed by Kinnard Buildings Inc. and more than a dozen other corporations by Oakland Attorney Grant Rounseville.

THE corporations had formed partnerships with Goforth for the construction of housing developments and shopping center throughout the Bay Area.

Each suit claims that Goforth has failed and refused to comply with the terms of his contracts with the corporations that banded together to acquire land in the various counties.

Rounseville declined to identify the principal investor in the land purchase combine other than to say he is a southern Californian.

THE SUITS claim that the various partnerships with Goforth have debts totaling $404,408 and asks that each partnership be dissolved and the debts be paid.

James A. Kennedy, an Oakland attorney who lives in San Leandro, also was named defendant in two of the actions since his name appears on corporate papers, Rounseville said.

The plaintiff corporations are listed as Larkin Estates, Burnside Estates, Harland Estates, Ambrose Estates, Clark Estates, Spencer Builders, Kinnard Builders, Crosby Estates, Linden Estates, Norwich Builders, Newbury Builders, Nottingham Builders, Jackson Homes and Pandora Builders.

Goforth's defendant corporations include Golf Club Estates Homes, Vallecito Homes, Rolling Hills Homes, Orinda Development Co., Northern Land Co., Northern Development Co., Lake Chabot Construction Co., First Western Land Co., Mission Estates, Decoto-Hayward Co., Santa Clara Land Co., Los Altos Homes Inc., Hayward-alleio Homes and Lafayette Builders.

Value of the holdings of each corporation will not be disclosed until the court decides whether to order an accounting.

Pay Less Drug Store, Market Opening Announced for May 1, Covers 5 Acres

The new Pay Less Drug Store and Super Market, at 2130 Contra Costa Highway, Pleasant Hill, is expected to be completed by May 1. It is being constructed by California Steel Buildings, Inc.

This will be the seventh store in the Pay Less Group. In addition to the headquarters store and market in Oakland, there are Pay Less units in Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose and Spokane, Washington.

The Pleasant Hill Store consists of two steel and concrete 120 foot by 220 foot units, joined together as one multiple building.

The total area covered by the building proper and including the mezzanine and porch areas is 53,400 square feet, approximately.

This compares with the Oakland headquarters store for size. There will be no columns to restrict floor space. Half of the new structure will house the Pay Less Drug Stores; the other half will be occupied by the Pay Less Super Market.

A Nursery and Garden Shop will occupy the 4800 square feet across the 240 foot front of this building.

This huge structure stands upon an approximate 5½ acre area, with approximately 400 car parking spaces.

Eagle Scout Awards Made

Randy Thaman and Jim Gilwee awards at an Eagle Court of were presented with Eagle Honor held by Explorer Post 300 Tuesday evening, March 31 at St. Stephens Episcopal Church in Orinda.

Following the invocation by the Reverend Albert Lucas, Randy and Jim were led through the Eagle trail by Eagles Jack Doty and Charlie Pfeifer and the award was presented by Roger L. Bales, Mt. Diablo Council Chief Scout executive.

JIM IS the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gilwee of 41 La Cuesta Road, and Randy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Thaman also of La Cuesta Road.

The boys have been together in scouting since cub scout days. Jim received his tenderfoot in May 1954 and Randy in January 1955. Both boys are sophomores at Miramonte High School and besides their studies are active in sports. im is on the tennis team and Randy has been on the football and basketball teams and is now out for baseball.

Post 300, led by Gerry Cullen with Bill Brown as Senior Crew Leader, is one of the oldest posts in the United States and over the years has had more than its share of Eagles, normally about 30 per cent of its membership.

There are 36 members and of these 12 have made Eagle.

Go to Church Sunday

Church of Christ

"BE YE HUMBLE" will be the morning message at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Church of Christ in Orinda which meets at 11 Crest View Drive. Bible study classes will start at 9:45 a.m. with classes for primary, junior and adults. The lesson for the adult class will be Luke 24; 45-63 "All is Fulfilled".

There will be an organ interlude between the Bible school and the morning worship service by Miss Arita Osborn.

There will be a good number of lively gospel songs at the beginning of the worship service followed by the communion service with scripture read from 1 Cor. 11; 20 to 29.

FRIDAY EVENING there will be a fellowship dinner and evening of games at the home of Jack Osborn. For menu planning call CL 4-2790.

Prayer meeting and Bible study will be held at 8 a.m. on Wednesday evening with the study in the 19th chapter of Revelation. Song service before, and prayer after the lesson.

Friday evening April 10 the Ladies Bible class will meet. The lesson will be "The Babe in the Manger, the Object of Adoration."

Sunday afternoon April 12 there will be a singspiration at the Hayward Church of Christ at 3 p.m. There will be lively gospel singing and many special musical numbers.

COLOR BIBLE film strips are being shown in the homes of those that desire to know more about God's book and His plan for the redemption of man.

For information about any service call CL 4-2790.

Christian Science

The importance of spiritual perception in making decisions will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Christian Science Churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Streets.

Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Pleasant Hill Grange, 600 Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill. The Christian Science Society of Lafayette meets at 3406 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

"UNREALITY" is the topic of the Lesson-Sermon. Included in the Responsive Reading are these verses from Matthew (7:19, 20): "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall known them."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, this selection will be read: "Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make, — hence its unreality" (525:20-22).

THE GOLDEN Text is from Psalms (119:65, 104): "Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O Lord, according unto thy word . . . Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

Episcopal

Services on the first Sunday after Easter at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Via Las Cruces, Orinda will be holy communion at 8 a.m., 9:15 a.m., and 11 a.m., with an ingathering of the United Thank Offerings of the women of the church in all services.

THE REV. Albert Lucas, rector, will conduct the services with the assistance of the Rev. Andrew Daughters.

Music under the direction of Richard Colvig, choirmaster and organist, will be provided by the junior choir at 9:15 and the senior choir at 11 o'clock, when the offertory anthem will be "The Strife is O'er" by Vulpius.

Church school will meet for kindergarten through 8th grade at 9:15 and for three-year-olds through 5th grade at 11 o'clock. Nursery care for younger children will be available in the basement of the rectory during the latter service only.

THE YOUNG people's fellowship will have an "Eatin' Meetin' " in Hill Memorial Hall at 6 p.m. The group will make plans for a dance to be held Friday, April 10, from 8 p.m. to 11:30 p.m., at which young people from the Orinda Community Church will be their guests.

Admission to the dance will be 50 cents for couples and 35 cents for stags.

Also on the agenda for Sunday evening will be plans for the car wash the group will hold on Sunday, April 12, from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the church parking lot.

Mid-week services of holy communion will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. and Thursday at 7 p.m.

ORGANIZATIONS meeting during the week will include the Seabury Club, which meets tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Young, 36 Southwood Drive.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which meets tomorrow at 7:30 a.m. for corporate holy communion, followed by breakfast; the Altar Guild, which meets Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. for corporate holy communion and business meeting; and the vestry, which meets Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Congregational

Rev. Chauncey Blossom will preach Sunday morning at 9, 10 and 11 o'clock in the Orinda Community Church.

Ed Richard will sing "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte at the first service. The senior choir will sing "Alleluia, Christ is Risen" by Kopolyoff at the 10 and 11 o'clock hours.

Church school for three-year-olds through the 8th grade will be held at 9, 10 and 11; infant care at 9 and 11. Senior high youth forum will meet at 11 in the minister's study.

SENIOR PILGRIM Fellowship will entertain PF parents at a potluck dinner in Fellowship hall Sunday at 6, followed by a program and worship service.

The Women's Guild luncheon will be at 12 noon Tuesday in Fellowship hall. Hostesses will be members of Circle 3. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Gordon Schmidt, and Professor Everett Howe will present "Vignettes on the Near East."

Bible classes will be held in the Livingstone room Tuesday at 10 and Thursday at 1.

THE BOARD of trustees and world service board will meet Wednesday, 8 p.m. at the church.

Junior Pilgrim Fellowship will have a barbecue on the patio at 5 p.m., Saturday, April 11, followed by dancing in Fellowship Hall.

Lutheran

"Our Continuing Communion" will be the subject of Pastor Hidy's sermon this Sunday at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Orinda.

Worship services are at 8 and 11 a.m. The service of holy communion will be celebrated at both services.

Honorable mentions were awarded to Craig Johnston, Bill Laird, Randall Angella, Helen Ford, Harden Jones, Lee Wright, Donald Stanford, Mary Campana, Diane Miller, Margaret Troffey, Dave Perry, Carol Stockton, Bonnie Haydon, Jon Carter, Dave Cecchini, and Phil Simon.

Parade, Games Features of PTA Hawaii Party

Plans for the Lafayette School PTA sponsored Westival have now been launched and everyone will "set sail" for our newest state—Hawaii.

A PARADE will start at 11 o'clock on May 16 and there will be prizes galore.

Then fun for all from 12 to 3 at our games booth-and lunch for the hungry-and bargains at the trading post shops.

Chairman for the Westival are Mrs. A. B. Leffler, general chairman; Mrs. Philip Bonhag, telephone chairman; Mrs. Harry Sonntag, art; Mrs. Wylma McLeod, finance; Mrs. Raymond Crist, prizes; Mrs. Evelyn Steding and Mrs Ellen Starr, co-chairmen trading post.

Also Mrs. Ernestine Spragens, special attractions; Mrs. Bonnie Wakeman, games; Mrs. Frances Hume, food booths; and Mr. Marland Chandler, dad's work work committee.

14 Art Students Win Show Awards

Fourteen Acalanes High School art students won 16 awards in the recent Scholstaic Art Exhibition held in San Francisco.

Fred Lohden, Acalanes senior, was awarded a gold key, while Linda Searight and Raeline Herman each received two merit award certificates.

OTHER MERIT award certificate winners include Clarice Staus, Barbara Renner, Sherine Gidley, Lloyd Osgood, Linda Quenzel, Pam Baker, Joan Littell, Pat Fredericks, Steve Garcia, Barbara Moore and Doug Southworth.

Sherrie Casaurang won first place honors in religious art and Carolyn Hockwood and Doug Dodds second place honors.

The students are pupils of Patricia Lucero, art instructor.

Hardboiled Eggs & Scrambled Children

PETER COTTONTAIL hopped down the Bunny Trail leaving in his wake, crushed eggshells, melted candy & empty baskets.

If perchance you snook an egg from your moppet's basket, and if it was a marshmallow one, tell us truthfully, could you CHEW it? SOME tasted like synthetic rubber. Or Blubber. Probably last season's supply!

At the Orinda Country Club's traditional Easter Egg Hunt, the prize catch from Peter's Egg Patch were the Gold Eggs, a beautiful sight to behold for a toddler discovering one tucked in the tee greens.

The ceremonies of seeking out the colored eggs, the fun of races & the Easter Parade of Mamas w/their Moppets got under way at 2.

Greeting family groups were committee couples, like Andrew & Jeri McGlynn, Jack & Vinnie Gilbert, Howard & Dorothy Gardner, Kitty & John Gillivan & Ted & DeEtte Laher, DeEtte doing the honors of checking off the winner's names & turning them over to the man at the mike for official announcement.

THE CHILDREN, resplendent in their Sunday Best, grouped in little bands accdg. to their age bracket & at the blow of a whistle, the Mother Bunnies hustled them off to the hunt.

Proudly returning w/Golden Eggs in the first hunt for tots age 1-4 was Glen Hoyt who hugged for dear life, his prize of a big white Bunny wrapped in cellophane. Jimmie Hudson running right behind him, rating a prize, too.

GOLD EGGS in the 5- age group brought in by Tina Tast & Brian McGlynn. In the older group, Shannon Parrish & Lance Seely found their prize spheres nestled in the shrubs by the Bridge.

Off to the Races, Hippety-Hop!

THE MOPPET WITH the Mostest Eggs, the Kenneth Mirov's dghtr. Betsy. . . The Jay Meyers children did well w/Johnny Meyer in his age group counting up 30 pretty pastel ones to cop First Prize. His younger sister Ann moved like quicksilver in the Running Race to win another First w/Jan Hastings close behind her.

OFF TO THE RACES held on the 16th hole just across from the Village. . . Mrs. Gen Bonnington, grandmother to the big Bonnington Brood, congratulating her granddaughter Mollie on another First Win in the speed races, Here, Bonnie Paul was runner-up.

Organdy dresses, bouffant & beautiful at church in the morning, got an official christening w/colored dyes & grass stains, some tots toting along their morning Haul & dipping their dimpled little patties into chocolate eggs. Patty Laher was busy assisting w/paper sacks & helped Kitty Gillivan to hide more of the eggs.

The Gilberts congratulated son Cres who won the Sack Race just seconds ahead of Bryce Stack. A fleet-footed little fellow name of Andy McFarland got a big cheer from his father Bob when he slid into home base in the youngest group's speed race.

OLD-FASHIONED fun of a spoon & egg race was won by Barbara Martin & Margaret Dexter. In another age group, Margaret Dade & Carol Reese. More winners in the running aces were young Mercury Men like Billy Cook & Mark DeWitt.

On the Sidelines . . . Mrs. Dwight Dickinson smilling . . . Ed & Vivian McCormick crossing the greens. Frances Lax, Pat Doten's mother & grandmother of the club president's children, giving a Good Hug to Scotty & Ann who participated in the fun. Over from Piedmont was Mary Selback w/her children.

THE DELIGHTFUL O'Brien Dog Act, billed as the "Five Mad Mexicans & The Wild Irishman," were the 5 talented little Chihuahuas & their owner-trainer, the children chortling at HIS red-wigged clown costume, his bulbous red nose. At show's end, the smartest little dog pulled a cord & by magical window-shade style, the marquee of O'Brien's Dog Act changed to a charming "Thank You".

Late afternoon, the family groups disbursing for traditional dinner gatherings. But like one child was heard to cry—"Mummy, there's no room left in my tummy".

Here, Take a Peep Yourself!

THROUGH THE Panoramic Egg . . . Adrienne Brown hunting last-minute for a panoramic egg stopped to tell about the fabulous one she fondly recalls from her childhood in France—This one was 10 feet long, frosted & sugared & displayed in a Parisian patisserie, the children kept at a slight distance so as not to smudge the frosting. Through the egg all manner of magic was seen. And Adrienne was wishing she could find one like THAT to show her grandchild.

The Andrew Hartanovs came home Sunday w/sunburned eyeballs from a stay in the snow at Tahoe. . . Phyllis has joined w/Gertrude Ogden to issue festive fruit-bowl invitations to a luncheon in honor of Mary Dorr & her mother Harper Wright. The affair to be held at the Hartanov's Camino Don Miguel home Apr. 15 is one of many to fete the departing Dorrs. Jean Smith & Emma Usinger, both old friends of Mary's are trying to find a date on the busy calendar for similar farewell functions.

MAD HATTER'S HOLIDAY. . . Easter Week was moving time for the Frederick Burton family who by now may be settled in their new Springhill Rd. home out Buckeye Ranch Way in Lafayette. Pat's mother Mrs. Keefer who lived w/the Burtons on Tappan Lane is now a Piedmont matron, the new Mrs. Norman Ellis after a Carmel ceremony at St. John's early March. Belated best wishes to a charming lady.

We whipped off to Dodge Ridge one day, more for sightseeing than skiing & popped in to the pretty Pinecrest Chalet operated by former Orindans Wilbur & Ruth Twining. . . The bldg. attractive in green & decorated Peter Hunt fashion w/yellow flower-painted shutters, the whole setting like a pretty Christmas card scene in the snow. The Twinings were out somewhere but their fine boy named Chucker took care of us.

We chatted & inquired about the summer camp schedule, played w/their pooches & went on our way.

In Columbia State Park, picturesque historic little town, arrived too late for the museum but enjoyed buying candy in a crowd lined up at the famous Columbia Candy Kitchen where all manner of old-fashioned sweets & treats are displayed in a period penny-candy store setting.

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY

And the Mostly-Basset mentioned in last wk's col. has found a new home in Lafayette. A family there read of him & having given up all hope of recovering their own pet, drove to Orinda & adopted the dog the Robert Miller's were caring for.

Donna & Dwight Skaggs Easter-weeked at king's Beach Tahoe & George & Betty Hollidge & their children holidays at Carnelian Bay. The Frank Newmans were doing nicely on the slopes at Sierra Ski Ranch.

Jean & Bill Thurston, now living in Glendora, were back up for a visit w/Carol & John When they sailed off Sunday in their stationwagon there sat John heading for the long drive South & holding carefully in a box on her lap, a delicate Bonsai tree & Bowl, the gift of her friend Lucie Hupp.

Singer Frances Groves, Orinda's Native Daughter of the Most Beautiful voice & winner of the SF Opera auditions last spring, went on to win just recently the finals in the American Opera auditions in Cincinati, Ohio.

ORINDA SUN

Let's Not Sweep all the Dirt Under the Carpet...

Odds are that it's the woman of the house who keeps your domicile neat and tidy. After all, that's part of her job.

Odds are, too, that she does a pretty fair job of it . . . with the chances being that dad's workshop, or the garage, is a lot messier.

Well, we live in different kinds of "houses." Maybe you never thought of it this way, but the house you live in is not your only home. So is your community, and your county . . . and even, your state.

MOST OF US are pretty mortified when company drops in unexpectedly and finds a certain amount of litter strewn around the living room. Of course, it's only magazines that haven't been neatly piled, and perhaps a copy of The Sun that has somehow spread itself all over the coffee table.

Well, we have thousands of "unexpected" visitors daily traveling along our county roads and the state highways that pass through our communities, and this is all part of our "living room."

During the next six weeks, there is a county-wide program being carried out to stress the importance of not strewing our area with rubbish and trash.

This is something we really shouldn't have to be told. For several reasons.

FIRST OF ALL, every piece of litter costs you money. Somebody has to pick up all the papers and beer cans, and that shows up, indirectly, on your county tax bill.

And you pay for it right in your own family. Remember, our kids learn more by the examples we set than by what we tell them. And every time you roll that window down and toss out a paper napkin or bag, you're teaching the youngsters in the back seat that they don't have to be responsible citizens, because you're not, and obviously you're getting away with it.

Just something to think about now that our hills are green, and it seems like a good idea, some Saturday or Sunday, to take a drive through our beautiful hills.

Let's keep it clean, huh?

And They're Fine Cookies! For a Good Cause, Too!

When school is out, and a couple of hungry mouths come romping into the house, it's always nice to have some cookies and milk handy.

Sounds like a television commercial, but it isn't!

It's merely a reminder that the Girl Scouts will be holding their annual cookie sale during the next week or so —in fact, it starts today, and we highly recommend the tasty wares.

Having personally sampled the cookies, the editorial staff of The Sun can speak with qualifications. You get your money's worth!

AND NOT ONLY do you get cookies, but you are helping a worthy cause in supporting the Girl Scout movement.

The cookies sell for 50 cents a box, but 21 cents of this money goes directly to the Girl Scouts, and we can't think of a better 21 cents investment, off hand.

The cookies sale provides excellent budget training and planning for the girls involved. Each troop discusses plans and projects and estimates the number of cookies that must be sold in order to carry out the budgeted program.

WE THINK THE Girl Scout program is wholesome and desirable.

We think the Girl Scout program deserves our unqualified support.

We urge you to buy some Girl Scout cookies.

You'll get more than your money's worth, and in more ways than you think!

To Build, or not to Build...

Where do we go from here?

It's awfully nice to have a roof over your head, and there are many county offices which are going to need bigger and bigger roofs in the coming years.

This is not a point to be denied. Inevitably, as our county grows, our county government is going to grow. Martinez facilities are already packed together, and there is only so much room for expansion at our present county seat.

SO NATURALLY, the county must build other facilities elsewhere. But where? And how much? That is the question.

A preliminary building and growth survey was prepared by the county some years ago, but it obviously has not provided answers for all the questions.

An example of this was the recent action by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors in hiring an architect to revise plans for the proposed Pleasant Hill Library to include a second story to house the county welfare department's central county office.

Now we are not criticizing the possible need for space by the welfare department, or the location of that department's office in the future library building.

We are only suggesting that the county badly needs a master building plan . . . and it needs it now.

THE COUNTY IS going to have to go to the people to finance the millions of dollars in bonds that will be needed to build the future construction that the county government must have.

These bond issues might meet with better acceptance if a firm building plan can be provided to show where the money is going to go, why it is needed, and how it fits in with the ultimate county office plan.

Are our county offices going to be centralized, or will they be spread out over the county to provide various services close to residential centers?

When will these facilities have to be built, and how much square footage will be required?

These are just two of the many questions which will have to be answered, and the answers should be forthcoming before actual construction on any phase of the building program starts.

Now is the time to prepare the answers.

Hey! John and Mary...

By NORMAN COLBY

If there is one group of people we like —whether or not they like us—it is the "Letter-to-the-editor" writers. They are swell people, even when they are mad.

They take an interest in what goes on. And they are not afraid, usually to stand up and be counted.

But we wonder about John and Mary Nitwit, who claim they are residents of this area.

We received their letter this week. There was no return address.

John and Mary are unhappy about school district taxes.

We know a lot of people who have expressed concern about the rising costs of running school districts, and the inevitable need for more schools as more people flock to central Contra Costa's bedroom area.

Many other people who are worried have made very creditable statements, but John and Mary say, "The public as a whole would like to see the teachers make more money. We would like more, too. But it's up to them to protest to the proper sources, not blame the people."

The letter continues to discuss ". . . too many plush government buildings and expenditures . . . too many fancy schools, architect and building fees too profitable . . ."

It concludes, "Since we all have to make a profit to survive, and we all can't be teachers and civil service workers—we all have to do the best we can with what we make. Dollars, of course."

Nobody likes taxes. But John and Mary Nitwit should attend the school board meetings, where discussion is held on cutting out bus transportation because there is not enough money.

The budget is open to the public. John and Mary should look it over, and forcibly suggest what other item should be cut, so busses, etc., can be kept.

The trustees look the budget over for the same reason, and often decide to brave parents' criticism by cutting bus transportation allotments because they can find no other alternative.

Let the parents attend the meetings, find the alternatives and propose them.

Most every parent in the district lives in a house where the breadwinner collectively or individually is bucking for more dough each week. The resulting inflation is costing us all money. Is it so bad that the teachers are trying to keep up in the great rat race?

There are arguments on the other side. My name is over this item. Come on, John and Mary, let's drop the Orphan Annie back fence backbiting. Let's attend meetings. Let's get the facts.

Sign your name. We won't use it, if you desire. Then we'll know that the "John and Mary Nitwit" jazz is not just a Freudian slip.

It's Spring and Our Corn is Very Green . .

By MARIE MONAHAN

APRIL FOOLISH month, a jewel. See the children back at school!

Pause for peace of mind & quiet, post-holidays of happy riot, shopping, shodding, new chapeaux & that's where Daddy's money goes.

Teachers rested, re-inspired. Mothers weary, worn & tired.

SPRING bows in with fresh wet face. Soft warm sun gives merry chase, wipes Spring's nose (No Blow Allowed!) with fluffy ball of cotton cloud, tickles Spring with wisps of feather, this means more of fine Fair Weather.

SPRING is sprung, the creek's aroar. Geraniums bloom at front-back door. Pussy Willow's yellow-fuzzing, Ladybugs & Bees are buzzing. Caterpillars quietly chewing, bucolic Bossies loudly mooing.

Month to turn ahead the clock, month for blooms, month for Bock.

Out on mustard-mottled hills, the brown cow chews, contents & fills herself with Mother Nature's grasses, while making Dairy-food for masses.

ORANGE poppies flame ablaze, purple lupine make mauve haze, colors bright on Earth's quilt-patching . . . Hardboiled Eggs & SOME HATCHING?

Anyone for baby cats, not to mention baby rats? Turtles STILL are hibernating . . . Just when IS their time for mating?

Soft rain drizzles, TWO A.M. . . . On with robe & slipper then & out about to gather things we usually don't put out till summer sings. Things that outside should be NOT, in they go before they rot or ruin, look at ALL the things we've strewn . . . paper lanterns, pillows, pad. Saturated, they'd look sad!

DID YOU SEE the Easter Moon looking like it should in JUNE? A glorious big Golden Egg, lending moonlight bright as Kleig.

Birds are trilling, lovers thrilling, but the cold night air is chilling!

Careful lest you catch . . . Kerchoo! Strep throat, virus, good old Flu! Birds are dizzy billing, cooing, Owls are busy Whooing, wooing. Hark, the Lark, the frog's acroak. Please to pass the Arti-choke! Say, do YOU itch with Poison Oak?

Time for Kleenex, Calamine. Keep your germs & don't catch mine.

If you have a code in head, please to keep yourself in bed!

PAPER GRASS still kicks around, jelly eggs in sofa found. Love for them will never fail, Flopsy, Mopsy Cottontail!

TOMATOES cheaper, potatoes steeper, better plant the Ivy Creeper.

Fresh Asparagus every night, a spring delight, bon appetite! Too bad the children still eschew them. They've never quite learned HOW to chew them!

It's Spring alright, this silly yapping! Soliloquizing while we're napping!

Inside Out...

Bewitched, Bothered, And Even Bewildered

By JOYCE BARNUM

Bewitcher, bothered or bewildered?

In the spring the suburbanites thoughts turn to incorporation and or annexation. They've been there throughout the other seasons too. But feelings run higher in the spring—no matter what the issue at stake.

In our immediate area Lafayette, Walden and Pacheco yearn to become separate entities and to retain their individuality through incorporation.

WALNUT CREEK and Concord, having established themselves as cities, feel the springlike urge to flex their muscles and extend their boundaries through annexation.

And sprawling Pleasant Hill has announced informally that it favors shedding its weighty problems from its unincorporated body and cozying up to the annexation bit.

There's nothing very new in the springlike urge to set up housekeeping.

Some have always been well enough established to strike out on their own and to maintain their estates in proper fashion. No part-time help for these people.

THERE ARE those with the same urges but who are a little less well-heeled. These must seek ways and means to balance their budgets. They are content to share expenses and maintenance costs with the guy next door to achieve the same ends as their estate-owning-brethren.

When the dust settles over the freeways which will indiscriminately slice through all the affected areas, some will be found living happily ever after. But you know how statistics read on these things.

Some still bewitched, others bothered and quite a band of bewildered.

HULLABALLOO
Dear Editor:

After reading that excellent letter in your column, last week, I wish to add that the Miramonte Pool committee seemed to be working without system. Having received several notices asking for $25 (there are three in my family) and because our daughter will enter Miramonte, I was prepared to send this amount in an enclosed envelope. I received a phone call asking if I wished to send the money or be called upon in my home. I replied that I would send it within a few days. My husband was promptly called and asked to contribute $5 per family member; this was when I thought the Miramonte Pool committee should get together.

A neighbor girl was here three times with more notices and we gave her the $25 we intended giving in the first place. After all this hullaballoo, my husband and I felt that we had assisted in a political campaign rather than in the interest of our daughter.

Name withheld by request.

Letters to The Editor

TV FOR SCHOOLS
Dear Editor:

Your editorials bemoan our feverish race with the technological brains of Soviet Russia, our accelerated classes in math and science. You ask what is happening to the child who writes poetry, loves music, painting.

KQED, Channel 9, provides an animated answer.

Programs to make "do-ers out of viewers" provide a fare of art, music, sports, reading, science, dance, Indian lore, history, etc., for children in a quarter of a million homes.

Now that KQED has increased its transmitting power, Lafayette viewers are able to take advantage of constructive entertainment for their children. Adults are able to learn new skills for themselves: Japanese brush painting, skiing, photography, Spanish, Russian, typing, shorthand, etc., as well as enjoy cultural enrichment and insight into community affairs.

We hope that soon our Lafayette schools will take advantage of the classroom service offered by KQED which 120,000 students in other districts now enjoy. Courses now being given include conversational Spanish, speech improvement, science, social studies, art, and current events.

If each PTA could provide one or two sets per school, all of our children would have the opportunity to learn from the experts in fields beyond the scope of our present educational system.

KQED, founded only five years ago, has been the recipient of an unusual number of local and national awards for the creativity and quality of its programs. It is owned and operated by a non-profit community corporation and cannot accept advertising. It looks to the community for support.

This year they need 500 more supporting members to carry on their work. KQED asks its viewers to pay $10 a year.

This membership carries a voting privilege and a year's subscription to their monthly station program publication.

Where else can you get so much for only 2c a day?

MRS. JOHNSON CLARK

FORGIVENESS
Dear Editor:

I forgive you for not printing my letter pointing out the error of your basis of criticizing spending by the Air Force at Parks (formerly Shoemaker) Air Force Base.

I thought you would be interested in the enclosed article from Popular Science. You could get just as many examples right here in our own area perhaps you ought to start a contest asking people to write in explaining "stupid" traffic signs and explaining why? This could turn in to a citizen effort to help the traffic department in the county.

I will start the ball rolling with a few of my own.

When headed east on the Freeway and turning off at Upper Happy Valley Road to Lafayette you come to a sign that says "End 35 Mile Zone" which means that the basic speed law of 55 mph applies. Then about 200 yards later you hit a sign that says 45 mph. Why didn't they put up a 45 mph sign at the first place?

All of the speed limits on the construction section between the Lafayette by-pass and the Orinda by-pass now read 35 mph — an absurd speed limit when they are not working. However, when they aren't working the contractor covers all the "Watch for Workmen" and "Danger — Equipment Crossing" signs. Just why couldn't the contractor hang 45 mph signs over the 35 mph signs when he isn't working. Actually the highway is safer now (when not working) than it was before several driveways have been eliminated.

Next, the lanes on Mt. Diablo Boulevard just east of Sun Valley Lumber Company are badly but to compensate for it they over a badly contoured curve at the top of a little grade. For safety the north side of that curve should be much higher—

Just one more—the intersec- might try moving the east bound lanes south a bit—and widening the west bound lanes where people are suddenly thrown to the far side of the road if they are not familiar with it.

Just one more—the intersection of Carol Lane and Mt. Diablo Boulevard. When headed west on Mt. Diablo Boulevard at night, how well can you see Carol Lane? I dont know the solution to this one—but I am sure it could be much better.

Don't Read This If You Don't Like 'Scare' News

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

I don't like to read "scare" columns—or to write them but this week I think I should.

I'm talking about children and accidents. Frankly, I think it's a wonder that any of our kids stay alive, considering diseases, accidents and other disasters.

I don't advocate that we have nervous breakdowns worrying about our youngsters. Nor should we make neurotics of them. But certainly education, persuasion and discipline are needed constantly.

What can we do?

We shouldn't prohibit bike riding, just because kids get hurt riding bikes. Yet, we should encourage bicycle safety programs and make certain our children participate. We shouldn't (and couldn't) prohibit driving by teenagers. But we can make certain they know how to drive properly and encourage (or threaten) them to obey laws. (We might even set an example when we sit behind the wheel). We can't stop using poison sprays and bait in the garden. But we must make certain that little kids have no access to it.

If you're not biting your fingernails by now, permit me to be more specific. Here are a few news items I clpiped out of papers last night and they motivated this column:

ITEM 1: Last Friday, Kenneth Schroder, 2, was visiting his grandmother in Lafayette, with his mother. He was put to bed for a nap. The child was found with crumbs in his hands and mouth from gopher poison which he had discovered in a secret hiding place. He was rushed to Kaiser Hospital, where his stomach was pumped.

Next—the bicycle

ITEM NO. 2: Twelve year old Tom Clark of 1241 Sunset Loop received a fractured skull and other injuries last Sunday in an accident which threw him headlong over his bike's handlebars. On Monday Kaiser Hospital reported his condition as "fair."

Apparently this was a mechanical accident, because witnesses reported that he and his friends were riding properly. The gear mechanism slipped into the front wheel, stopping the bike abruptly, according to reports.

ITEM 3: Last Friday Andy Griswold, 8, of 3219 Apache Court, was treated for possible concussion after falling from his bicycle. He flipped over the handlebars and hit his head.

Two workmen picked him up and he was treated by local doctors and was sent to Kaiser Hospital.

And now—the revolver

ITEM 4: Gary Propersi, 14, is in critical condition in Pittsburg Community Hospital with a bullet lodged near his spine. Police said he was shot accidentally by a schoolmate, Patrick Revetta, 14, as a group of four boys watched television after school in the Revetta home.

While the boys watched TV, Pat brought out his father's .38 caliber revolver and some bullets to show them. The gun discharged and the bullet hit Gary. He underwent surgery for a punctured lung. More surgery to remove the bullet was scheduled. He is paralyzed from the waist down, doctors said.

Had enough?

If not, I will mention the story in last night's city papers: a 14-year-old adventuresome youth had to have his leg amputated. He and another boy decided to hike a ride on a moving train in Oakland. He slipped and both legs were run over.

All these accidents happened within a few days.

Of course—the slingshot

And here's another dating back to October 7, when a 9-year-old San Pablo boy was struck by a piece of metal allegedly hurled from a sling shot by another youth. It's in the news this week because of a $25,000 law suit.

Okay—I'll stop. I guess the only thing we can do is to keep our kids securely and safely at home at all times.

Ha!

More accidents occur at home than almost anywhere else!

Letters to The Editor

SAFETY
Dear Editor:

Those organizations sponsoring community or other events for children evidently need to be reminded that the children's safety is even more important than their entertainment.

One Easter Egg Hunt, Saturday, came within split seconds of being a tragedy. One end of School Street at Moraga Road was blocked off; and the children were started on the hunt by having them cross School Street from the Lafayette School to the field by Town Hall.

The other end of the street, at First Street, however, was left open; and midway through the hunt one six year old, as many children even younger were doing, crossed from behind a parked car just as another car came driving through the block on School Street where the hunt was being held. The driver in question came west, gazing off south at the hunt, and did not even see the child he narrowly missed hitting and would have hit had not a mother standing near (not the child's mother) screamed to the child.

That the accident did not quite occur does not nullify the fact that the people organizing the hunt were placing children in the abnormal situation of being allowed in the street, and then not providing that the street would be safe for them.

The whole thing can be dismissed very casually—and evidently was, since after the near accident was reported to an official of the hunt, the street continued to remain open and cars to whip in while small children crossed.

But when a preventable accident happens to even one child —when he is maimed or killed, three things are true. (1) He cannot be wished whole again; (2) the sponsoring organization is open to considerable legal damages; and (3) the whole value of the event is more than nullified.

SUBURBIA TODAY

"Did you see my jar of lightning bugs?"

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

With the Easter parade just a few days behind us, here we are with a parade of upcoming social events.

Heading the parade is the annual spring dance of Laurel Junior Branch Children's Hospital. On April 11 guests of the branch will have an "evening out of this world" at the Walnut Creek Elk's Club as members cleverly carry out the "Blast Off" theme with rockets, flying saucers, sputniks and explorers.

Mrs. Jack Block and Mrs. Burt S. Hofmann are chairmen of the informal buffet and dance assisted by Mrs. Robert F. Teddy and Mrs. James Moore. A few of the pre-blast off parties will be held in the homes of C. C. Heister, Jack L. Block, Burt S. Hofmann, Fenn Wilson, Perry Holmes, Lloyd Kindall Jr., E. J. Molloy Jr., Robert F. Teddy, Thomas Crellin, Robert Gilfillan and John V. Tague.

Hey, Doc, Look at the Camellias!

Many of the area's physicians will put aside their stethoscopes and white coats Saturday night to attend the annual Camellia Ball to be given at Castlewood Country Club by the doctor's wives. This large social event is the major fund raising project of the year for the Woman's Auxiliary to the Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association with proceeds going to a number of educational and philanthropic causes related to the medical field.

The Junior Larks of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center proved once again that young ladies of high school age do a mighty fine job of presenting a colorful and well-organized fashion show.

Held at the El Nido recently, the girls went all-out with a Japanese theme. The comely hostesses were their oriental best in Japanese kimonos and sheaths of many beautiful colors and fabrics. Appropriately placed in the center of each table was a tiny, brown Japanese hut cleverly made of toothpicks with succulent plants resting in seashells.

The red and black program carried out the theme with Japanese lettering for words such as "models", "committees" and all the other necessary program headings. Seen among the many guests were Barbara McAuliffe, Billie Campbell, Carolyn Young, Virginia Morrison, Marge Warburton, Mrs. Win Stanley and Mrs. Donald Fibush.

Among the "ohs and ahs" were Janet Jones as she modeled a semi-formal frock of pale blue chiffon with matching taffeta underskirt accented by a chiffon cummerbund, and Judy Morrison in a swim suit with a permanent pleated white skirt, dark blue top with cardigan style white jacket trimmed with same blue.

And some coffee in Sleepy Hollow . . .

Betty (Mrs. Ed.) Bergen greeted guests recently at her Sleepy Hollow home as they arrived for her annual "coffee". The hostess, as always, was outstanding in an all white wool, kelly green ascot and matching pumps. Some of the local guests included Gladys Hamberg, Dorothy Marcus, Edith Scatena, Mildred Pridemore and Bille Greenlaw. Others were Bobbie McGuire, Laurie Abbes, Van Holmgren, Thelma Sweet, Helen Federighi.

Another open house that included a luscious assortment of cakes, pies and tarts made by the ambitious hostess was given by Betty (Mrs. Nelson) Burrin in honor of her visiting mother, Mrs. Helen Rusie of Indianapolis. Enjoying the mouth-watering delicacies were May O'Neil, Ruth Harris, Gwen Upshaw, Eve Johnson, Marge Ramsay, Rama Lee, Donna Winslow, Esther Derrod, Shirley Myler and Shirley Miller. Also on hand were Iva McGuire, Trudy Merton, Gladys Kroll, Lorene Terry, Esther Tooker, Lucille Ficket, Wanda Obert, Wanda Druger and Helen Martin.

Mrs. William Schacht, better known as Mary Pat Newbury to her many friends, has been visiting with her parents the Carl Newburys of Danville. Pat and her family have been living in Lancaster, Wisconsin. Teddy, Kurt and Nancy Lee made the trip with their mother and are completely enjoying the constant attention of their California grandparents.

Pat was guest of honor at a lovely buffet luncheon given by her mother at the Danville home. Enjoying many old acquaintances and friends were Pat's sister, Nancy, (now Mrs. Douglas Tuck) who came up from the Peninsula for the occasion and sister, Roxie, who is now Mrs. Addison Austland of Walnut Creek. Among the Antioch guests was Mrs. Lawrence Mehffey, Pat's aunt. Mrs. Paul Sack of San Francisco was among the guests along with her mother, Mrs. John Lar Rieu of Walnut Creek.

Also from Walnut Creek were Mrs. Reginald Biggs, Mrs. Paul Nave, Mrs. Harry Lawrence. Some of the Orinda guests were Mrs. Clinton Paine and Mrs. Anthony Biggs and from Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Donald Wylie. Many others enjoyed the reunion of good friends in the Easter setting of the Newbury home.

GIRLS INTERESTED in nursing careers get help from the Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Auxiliary, Contra Costa Unit. They are planning a luncheon for April 14 in honor of last year's recipients, and a Flower Ball on May 16. Left t right are Mesdames Dorothy Bruno, Nursing Scholarship luncheon chairman, Mrs. Marge Arnaud, scholarship chairman for Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Irving Fine, Flower Ball decorations chairman. —Sun photo by Rolf deTrentini

And they finally found some snow . . .

Making use of what snow we have had, the Robert Heaton family and son, Larry enjoyed themselves at Tamerack Lodge. The Bill Whites and Bruce Stringers had a heavenly time at Heavenly Valley. Enjoying the Lake Tahoe snow were Dr. and Mrs. Preece, and Peggy and Jim Fuerstand with two sons, Michael and Billy.

Leaving the snow and rain behind them were the Gordon Palmquist family and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wing who spent a delightful Easter vacation in the Islands.

And here's an incentive for all salesmen! Mr. J. W. Tarpley received a "dream" trip to Nassau for himself and his wife as leading salesman of his district for the Lederle Laboratories. They spent a wonderful week of guided tours, deep sea fishing, golfing . . . the works! On their return they were able to stop off in Nashville, Tennessee to visit Mr. Tarpley's folks.

It's good news to learn the County Auditor Howard McNamer is now at home convalescing after a lengthy stay at Martinez Community Hospital following a heart attack. His eagerness to get back to the office is the best sin of rapid progress which is good news to all his many friends.

The Alhambra Valley home of Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Jones was the scene of a beautifully appointed champagne reception in honor of their son, Gary, and his bride, the former Barbara Jensen, recently married in Oregon. Both are continuing their studies at Oregon State. Many Martinez friends were on hand to offer the couple best wishes, including Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Edwards, proudly telling everyone about THEIR new son-in-law.

Alhambra High coaches Jim Coulter and Ralph Jackson with wives, Norma and Pat, were among the many guests. Pat's hilarious account of how she broke an ankle learning to ski this winter kept the party bubbling. The George Gordons and Glenn Jeans, en route to still another reception in Richmond, enjoyed the fun!

Happy are we that the Martinez Starling Unit of the Therapy Center is most happy at the results of their Invitational Basketball Tournament held last week! Must have been successful because they are already enthusiastically making plans for next year. On hand for the opening night to spark the activities was Mrs. Juanita Benoy, administrator of the Center, who with members of her family helped out in the cheering section.

We'll leave our best wishes to the Bruce Rosenblatts, John Voegthys and George Bradleys. All three families added a third baby girl during the month of March. Congratulations also to the Ernest Reichmanns on the arrival of their third child, a new baby boy.

Larks Will Visit Homes for Bridge

Sixteen lovely homes in Lafayette and Orinda will be opened to aid the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center at a dessert bridge April 15 sponsored by the Lafayette Larks.

Mrs. Donald Campbell is chairman of the affair and Mrs. William Simpson co-chairman.

They have selected the homes of the Mmes Edward Ageno, Newton Warburton, William Simpson, Donald Fibush, Kenneth Welch, A. C. Farrell, Richard Fulgham, J. Tessler, Howard Hearn, Joseph Lateana, Jim Shierry, Walter Gritzer, Donald Campbell, Harry Young, Robert Stevens and Lloyd Anderson.

DAR to Meet

The April meeting of Acalanes Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence G. Smith, regent, of Orinda, Monday.

Dessert will be served at 12:30. A short business meeting will then be held.

Mrs. Scott Roundtree of Oakland, state vice chairman of historic spots in California, will give a talk.

Jr. Women Initiate New Members

The Lafayette Suburban Women's Club welcomed and initiated new members at their March 19 social meeting.

Membership chairman Mrs. Leo Schell presented each new member with a corsage and an "hourglass", to be symbolic of the hours the young women will put into community service in conjunction with the club's activities.

Mrs. George Sanko, president of the Juniors conducted the initiation assisted by Mrs. William Seroy, William Witherwax, and club coordinator Mrs. Stuart Smith.

New members are Mesdames Ted Lysten Harold Hill, Donald Bushnell and Les Johnson.

Mrs. Charles York was in charge of the evening's entertainment and presented the guest speaker Mrs. Pat Fink from a local charm school who spoke on charm and social development pertinent to suburban living.

The special foods committee was headed by Mrs. Gene Morrison assisted by Mrs. James Hurrell who did the serving.

Local Women Serve Coffee, Tell TV Story

Eight Contra Costa County women joined almost 200 others from other parts of the Bay Area yesterday, to give coffee parties for KQED, the Bay Area's educational television station.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. John G. Kelley of Walnut Creek the following women, Mrs. Robert T. Adams and Mrs. Johnson Clark of Lafayette, Mrs. Franklin R. Lloyd Jr. of Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Arthur S. Noll of Danville, Mrs. S. P. Selznik of Concord, Mrs. Gene Thomas of Martinez, and Mrs. George Vaughn of Orinda, served coffee in their homes to friends and neighbors, to present the five year story of educational TV in this area.

KQED presented a special broadcast highlighting their achievements over the past five years KQED explained that they provide a program service to satisfy a wide variety of interests not covered by commercial television. Their constructive entertainment for children includes programs on art, music, sports, science, dance, Indian lore, history, etc.

'Summer Sojourn' Theme For Pi Phi Fashion Show

Pi Beta Phis, mothers and alums — plus actives — are departing from the usual to stage a two-day spectacular fashion show and lunch.

"Summer Sojourns" is the theme.

The red letter days are April 14, 15, when the actives fashion high styles from a top flight store at the chapter house on the Cal campus, two days in succession.

First showing is for the mothers' club and friends; second for alumnae and their guests.

Sequences of "Summer Sojourns" fashions will suit the plans of young and older generations for the summer months.

Leading with "You're Off to Tahoe" then, "You Who Are Going to Europe" plus the intermission — a skit — "You Who Are on the Campus" followed by "You Are Visiting Your Aunt," will give opportunity to show all types of clothes suitable, as to the latter, clothes for blind dates, cocktail parties, teas, dances, etc., will be lavish. Final sequence for "Summer Sojourns," "You Who Are Getting Married."

This will be the largest Pi Phi party of the year. Mothers and alumnae have been mapping plans for this gala event for weeks assisted by Pi Phi Mrs. Harold A. Ellis, Jr. fashion co-ordinator.

Seed Packets To be Given Women

Mrs. Walter C. Meyer, program chairman of Lafayette Women's Club, announces that the next meeting on April 7 will feature a film on "Wild Flowers of the West."

William Graves will show these color pictures and tell about them. He's a representative of the conservation department of the Richfield Oil Corporation.

Packets of flower seeds will be given away at this timely event.

The meeting is at 1:30 p.m. in Veteran's Hall in Lafayette.

Following the business session, conducted by Mrs. Ted J. Clark, president, refreshments will be served.

Tea chairman for the day is Mrs. A. H. Young, assisted by Mrs. John G. Stephens, Mrs. Edmond R. Schneider and Mrs. Carson A. White.

Walnut Branch 'Festival' Is May 5 at Howards'

The spacious lawns and gardens of the three Howard homes on Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek, will gaain be the background for the 14th annual Festival of Flowers and Fashions.

This famous fashion show and tea sponsored each year by Walnut Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay will be held on May 5.

Preparations for this event started early in January.

For many weeks the women of Walnut Branch have enthusiastically planned and worked in an effort to make this their most "spectacular".

Mrs. John Griffith, branch chairman, has named Mrs. Monroe Smith as general chairman.

Mrs. Smith is being assisted by the following committee: Tea Hostess, Mrs. Harmon Howard; Fashions, Mrs. Edmund Boero and Mrs. Thomas Taylor; Properties, Mrs. Robert R. Hopper; Food, Mrs. Robert Haumeder.

Decorations, Mrs. A. Keyes George; Tickets, Mrs. J. Allen Madison; Prizes, Mrs. William E. Nero; Program, Mrs. King Crosno.

Finances, Mrs. D. Charles Williams; Publicity, Mrs. William M. Imbrie; Reservations, Mrs. James McGeehon.

Five new members of Walnut will participate in the festival for the first time. They are Mrs. L. E. Walton, Mrs. Lyle Wilcox, Mrs. George Nash, Mrs. John H. Burgess and Mrs. Robert B. Wentz.

Tickets at $2.25 may be secured from any member of Walnut Branch or by calling Mrs. James McGeehon at YEllowstone 4-4772. Proceeds from the party will benefit the hospital's program of part-pay assistance for needy children.

Flicker Fashions Will Turn Club to Paradise

Frothy touches of pink an fuchsia net will transform the ballroom of Castlewood Country Club into a feminine paradise April 11, when the Flicker Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center presents its fifth annual luncheon and fashion show.

Danny Van Allen, local restauranteur and master-of-ceremonies will be the commentator for the parade of styles which will feature the new "fitted-look".

Fashions for the show have been selected from the "Clothes Horse" and "Tots for Teens", both of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Robert Ramelli, chairman for the event, has announced that the early demand for tickets points toward a capacity audience.

Her committee includes the Mesdames John Mozzetti tickets; Jack Gordon, decorations; Earle Romack, programs; Robert Schroeder, models; Howard Burk, reservations; Richard Lieber, favors; Richard Olsen and Robert Patrick, prizes. Models will be chosen from other units of the Therapy Center.

A few reservations for the noon luncheon and show are available at $3.50 each from Mrs. John Mozzetti, YE 4-9723, or Mrs. Howard Burk, YE 5-2085. Proceeds from this annual affair will go to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center to aid its program of therapy and rehabilitation.

To Observe Anniversary

Twenty-five years of service will be celebrated by Catholic Social Service of Alameda County at a Silver Jubilee Ball on May 2.

The Hotel Claremnt Gold Room will have a spring garden setting, according to Mrs. Rueben Freitas of Orinda, decoration chairman.

Officers guiding the auxiliary include Mrs. C. Donald Buchanan, president; Mrs. James Harrington, 3530 East View Drive, Lafayette, vice president; Miss Martha Doyle, secretary, and Mrs. Robert L. See, 69 Acorn Court, Walnut Creek, treasurer.

Planning pre-ball cocktail and dinner parties in their homes will be Mr. and Mrs. Phillip G. Horton, 1372 Jenkinson Drive, Concord; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Nelson, 275 Rheem Boulevard, Moraga.

Ray Youmans, Bride Now in Las Vegas

At home in Las Vegas, are Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Ray W. Youmans, following their marriage earlier this month at Sacramento.

The wedding, at St. Paul's Memorial Episcopal Church, featured a candlelight service, followed by a reception held in the parish hall.

The bride, the former Miss Patricia Pillsbury, daughter of of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Pillsbury, of Sutter Creek, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Malcolm Edmiston, of Reno.

Foster Care Group Plans Annual Lunch

Junior Alliance of Childrens Foster Care Services has scheduled its annual Mayfair luncheon and fashion show for May at the Claremont Hotel in the Garden Room.

The latest fashions will be shown by H. Liebes.

Mrs. D. Grant Mainland is general chairman, and Mrs. Wesley E. Risedorph is her co-chairman. The training and rehearsing of models is in the hands of Mrs. Robert F. Wildman, who is being assisted by Mrs. Lloyd N. Cobbledick Jr.

Local matrons chosen to model from active Junior Alliance ranks include Mesdames H. B. Gardner, Robert Haaf, Kenneth Holland, William A. Ingram, Vernon Louis, Alan McDowell and Elbridge Ostrander, all of Orinda; and Mrs. Richard W. Johnson, of Lafayette, and Mrs. Roscoe Matkin Jr., of Concord.

Sixteen members are working under decorations chairman Mrs. Robert D. McKenzie, of Lafayette. Mrs. Roy Mortensen Jr. of Lafayette is her assistant.

The decorative theme is "Oriental Cruise", and ready to be placed in the center of each table is a gloved hand, bedecked with jewelry, and holding a lovely oriental fan.

Working on this committee are three local residents: Mrs. Paul B. Butler Jr., Mrs. Charles R. Martin, both of Lafayette and Mrs. Robert H. Eckhoff Jr. of Orinda.

Hostesses under the guidance of Mrs. Eugene Thomas, will be new members attired in gay muumuus. These include Mrs. Charles M. Andres of Orinda, and Mrs. Raymond R. Righetti of Lafayette.

They will seat over 700 guests for the 12:30 luncheon which is preceded by a social hour at 11:30.

UC Alumni To Dance for Scholarships

University of California alumni from the Diablo area will dance for scholarships tonight from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Elks Club, Walnut Creek.

Sponsored by the Diablo Area Scholarship Committee and endorsed by over 200 California alumni, the annual informal dance is designated as the "Spring Fling."

Its proceeds, together with other contributions, will provide scholarships for outstanding and needy graduates from the high schools in the area—Mt. Diablo, Pleasant Hill, Acalanes, San Ramon, Las Lomas and Miramonte.

At work on plans are Mel Arighi, chairman of the local committee, and Dance Chairman Mrs. Greg Englehard.

Aiding them are Francis Tobias and Mrs. R. F. Tharp of Orinda; Sidney Anderson, Dick David, Dave Stewart, Mrs. Jay Abernathy and Mrs. William Rei of Lafayette.

Stanley Friden, Bill Hale, Mrs. Robert Cuenin and Mrs. William Hale Jr. of Diablo; Norman Betaque, James Dieterich Jr. and Ben Dykes of Alamo; Richard Humphries, Norman Karvelis, Tom Nilon, Miss Norine Kelley and Mrs. Robert Pinger of Concord.

Harold Ipson, Lloyd Scott, Mrs. James Buckley and Mrs. Robert Wisecarver of Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Robert Odell, Holt Parsons, Mrs. Floyd Taylor and Wayne Welcome of Walnut Creek.

Tickets can still be obtained at the door tonight or from the dance chairman, Mrs. Greg Englehard, or any committee member.

The dance is open to all California alumni and their friends.

Paris in Spring Theme for P.E.O.

On Friday morning, March 27, Chapter OT, P.E.O., of Orinda met at the home of Mrs. Nancy Glass, 154 Camino Sobrante.

The newly elected officers for the year 1959-69 presided: Mrs. R. T. Hickcox, president; Mrs. T. S. Ochels, vice president; Mrs. C. M. Fish, recording secretary; Mrs. C. E. Blossom, recording secretary; Mrs. D. E. Winkler, treasurer; Mrs. James Lewis, chaplain; Mrs. W. W. Vosper, guard; and Mrs. John L. Gilmore, representative to Reciprocity of the East Bay.

After the meeting, following the year's theme of "There's a Song in the Air," Mrs. Glass gave a program entitled "Paris in the Spring," using illustrations from her visits there.

Some tickets are still available for the remaining two book reviews in the series being given by Mary Dorr, under the sponsorship of Chapter OT,

Area High Schools Are Sewing at Capwell's

Walnut Creek area high school girls will pick accessories to match home-made fashions Saturday at Capwell's-Walnut Creek. They will model the outfits at a fashion show later in the month at the store. The interesting feature of the affair is that the girls have made all the clothes themselves, either at home or in their home economics classes.

The things that the young ladies have created were done so with McCall's dress patterns and fabrics furnished by Capwell's.

The selection of the students was made through their domestic science teachers.

Mrs. Wilma Schmidt, McCall's fashion coordinator, will asist the girls in picking the proper accessories to match the clothes. The types of designs made range from sport to formal. There will be play suits, sheaths and full length dresses as well as suits.

The accent will, of course, be on warmer weather fabrics, highlighted by the newest cottons and rayons. The girls will keep the things after the event is over.

The hard work put into these lovely things, coupled with some of the smartest new accessories should assure a very interesting show for all to see April 18.

French Classes At Lafayette

There are openings in French classes at Lafayette School for children in the K-3rd and 4-6th grade levels. Classes are held on Thursday afternoons.

Mrs. P. Achener says that lessons can be continued for six weeks during the summer under the enrichment program. A new unit is taught each quarter. Children from other schools are welcome.

Beginning and intermediate students are taught conversational French by hearing, imitating and speaking the new language in meaningful situations.

Sheriff Plans Marine Unit

Sheriff Walter F. Young announced today that plans are being formulated for the formation of a Marine Reserve program as a part of the present Sheriff's Reserve.

With a total registration of boats in this county in excess of 8500, and an additional 2000 boats being trailered into the county each week-end, Sheriff Young has recognized the need to augment the present patrol boat now being operated by the sheriff's department, and the organization of these boat owners for disaster preparedness.

Present planning calls for the establishment of training programs in small boat operation, law enforcement and water safety. Plans are also being considered for the organization and training of skin diver teams.

Anyone interested in additional information on this program may contact etiher Deputy Sheriff John Walsh, skipper of the Sheriffs Marine Patrol, or Sgt. Steve Rossi, director of the Sheriff's Reserve, at the County Civil Defense Office, 2130 Arnold Highway, Martinez.

County Heart Fund Gifts Help Research

"Contributions by the people of Contra Costa County to the Heart Fund have helped make possible the award of fellowships totalling $1,562,243 to 182 scientists across the country who are conducting research on diseases of the heart and blood vessels," it was announced this week by William C. McIntosh, president of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

The awards were made under the national research support program of the American Heart Association. Of the Heart Fund contributions provided by the Contra Costa County Heart Association to support the national program aimed at combating the cardiovascular diseases, more than 50 per cent is allocated to research.

Mel Brown to Join Purity Store Firm

Mel Brown, who has been with the MacDonald Products Company for eight years, will join the staff of Purity Stores Inc., as a real estate field representative, it was announced.

Brown will have his headquarters in Burlingame. His move will take place in about a month, according to Edith Apgar of MacDonald Products Company, which is the firm which developed the Broadway Shopping Center.

Here's How to File for Local Board Vacancy

Interested in running for trustee of your local school board?

Procedure is simple, according to the office of Dr. Floyd Marchus, county superintendent of schools.

Candidates may write for a filing form or obtain one in person at the superintendent's office, Court House, Martinez.

The completed form may be mailed to the superintendent. There is no filing fee and no signatures other than the candidate's are necessary.

Deadline for filing is April 17 at 5 p.m.

Class Planned

Peter White, a representative of an investment firm, who is an experienced speaker and teacher on problems of investments, will again conduct a course in stock market securities on Wednesday evenings.

Sculptor-Author is Diablo Forum Speaker, April 21

"In your own hands lies the secret of happiness" is a quotation from the philosophy of Mme. Suzanne Silvercruys, internationally known sculptor, philosopher and author. She will be the guest artist for the final spring series program of the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum, April 21 at the Diablo Country Club.

Her subject entitled "Your Life is in Your Hands" presents Mme. Silvercruys' belief that people should learn to do something with their hands, as a hobby to relieve tensions.

She also believes that all children should be encouraged in forms of self-expression in the various art.

THE GUEST artist is a sister of Baron Silvercruys, Belgian ambassador to the United States.

Her father, the late Baron Silvercruys, was president of the supreme court of Belgium.

As a child during the first world war, Suzanne was a Belgian refugee. After assisting the martyred nurse, Edith Cavell, she escaped through Holland to England and to the United States.

In private life she is the wife of an American colonel and her most prized possession is her U.S. citizenship.

A GRADUATE of Yale University's School of Fine Arts, Mme. Silvercruys holds many honorary degrees.

She has modeled the busts of famous Americans and Europeans and her massive Ware Memorials in Belgium and Canada are considered masterpieces of sculpture.

As adept with words as she is with her sculptor's tools, Mme. Silvercruy tells her audience how to pursue happiness while her hands are busy modeling the head of a subject picked at random from the audience.

Mrs. John Blemer, Forum coordinator, will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Bartlett, treasurer.

Mrs. William Denault and Mrs. George Towle will hostess the coffee hour and Mrs. E. P. Sawyer will decorate the clubhouse. Mrs. Fred Thomas will greet the guests and Mrs. Stanley Friden will introduce the speaker.

Mrs. William Hale Jr. is in charge of club arrangements and Mrs. Clifton Moore has been publicity chairman for the Forum season.

The coffee period at 10 a.m. is included in the ticket, with the lecture scheduled at 10:30. Tickets may be purchased at the door the morning of the program and the public is invited to attend.

KEEP PEACE

Do you want to keep peace across the property line when you build your fence? A prominent West Coast landscape architect suggests using wood fencing—it's more friendly and easy to live with than rigid materials — and using a three dimensional fence pattern like board-on-board or louvers.

Acalanes Board Joins in Fight

Opposition to Assembly Bill 156 was voiced recently by the Acalanes High School District Board of Trustees.

Last week the Lafayette School District board went on record against the proposed legislation.

A.B. 156 would place the final selection of school sites in the hands of local and county planning commissions instead of school boards.

A.K.C. Trials to Draw 250 Dogs To WC City Park

Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club Trial Secretary Mrs. Thomas J. Bowen said April 13 is the final entry date for all dogs participating in the 12th annual A.K.C. obedience trials on April 26 at city park, Walnut Creek.

This event is expected to draw 250 entries from the Bay Area.

The unbenched show will be held outdoors from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The public is invited to attend free of charge.

Judging will be by American Kennel Club licensed judges.

Novice A: Paul Miner, Long Beach, and Warren Stephens, Baldwin Park.

Novice B: Mrs. Ruth Davis, San Francisco.

Harbor Com. Picks Vern Patterson

The Contra Costa County Harbor Commission has elected Vernon Patterson, Lafayette attorney as chairman, replacing Tom Heaton who has been chairman, pro tem.

"The terrific growth of boating and recreation activities has alerted the board of supervisors to the need for providing an orderly plan of waterfront development on all of the waters of the county, including the recreational possibilities on impounded reservoirs and artificial lakes," Patterson said.

"The county has 85 miles of shoreline in addition to the fabulous Delta Region and presents to fishermen, sportsmen, and water skiers, tremendous possibilities for recreation," he continued.

He added, "The committee is at present, engaged in cooperative studies with the County Park Commission, the State Park Commission and other state and federal agencies to secure for Contra Costa County all possible benefits which may be available.

"The California Water Plan and its effect on waterfront development and recreation, prevention of water pollution, new fishing resources, and facilities for launching boats and regulating their operation, are among various matters to be studied by the committee,' he said.

A joint survey with San Joaquin, Sacramento, and Solano counties for a marking system on the Deltas is planned.

A boating ordinance is under study and the committee is attempting to secure approval for plans for aquatic parks, harbors of refuge, and launching ramps.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen is the committee member representing the board of supervisors. Tom Heaton represents the planning commission, and Raymond Thayer, park planner, will continue to serve as technical advisors.

Scout Expositions to be Held at Two High Schools

The search for "mystery prizes' is still on as Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Meridan district, Boy Scouts of America, contact their neighbors and friends while selling tickets to the Scout Expositions to be held on April 11 at Las Lomas and Miramonte High Schools.

Prizes have been placed with residents in the Danville, Alamo, Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda and Moraga areas.

Thus far the "only mystery" prize reported found was a football kicking tee collected by Gary Malmgren of Pack 214.

Gary was given this surprise gift when he called on Mrs. John Marshall of 1682 Carmel Drive to try to interest her in a ticket to the Exposition.

At the exposition, Cubs, Scouts and Explorers will be demonstrating the skills of their programs in especially erected booths.

Scout troops will be dealing in merit badge subjects such as cooking, nature, markmanship, while Cubs will be doing themes such as "Canada, Land of the Mounties," "Down on the Farm," "Cub Handicraft" and "Transportation."

The shows will run from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. at both locations.

Tickets purchased will be good at either show.

Explorer Scout Places Eighth In Rifle Shoot

The buffalo and bison may be gone along with the open range but not the sharp shooters if the recent record of Frederick Lercari of Lafayette is any evidence.

Fred, an Explorer in Boy Scout Troop 224 of Lafayette was a member of a local rifle team in a match jointly sponsored by the National Rifle Association and the America.

THE TEAM composed of Fred, Explorers of the Boy Scouts of Bill Peregoy and Don Peregoy, won the Region XII team shoot. Fred placed eighth in the individual national competition out of 2500 young men.

Scoutmaster of Troop 224 is Don Hoskins.

Golden Gate Group Ok'd by Authority

"The Bay Area Council is sponsoring and will continue to sponsor the Golden Gate Authority in its original concept of creating a regional, home rule agency to consolidate administration and operation of the Bay Area's toll bridges, seaports and airports," Edgar F. Kaiser, council president, said March 26 at the council's annual dinner meeting in San Francisco.

Speaking before over 500 council members and guests, Kaiser said, "A meeting which I attended with San Francisco City Attorney Holm, Controller Ross, Chief Administrative Officer Ducker and Supervisor Halley, has been widely reported in the press. Unfortunately, that meeting has been seriously misinterpreted—not in respect to what was reported, but in respect to the context in which the meeting was held.

"SO THAT THERE may be no misunderstanding, the Bay Area Council does not favor and will not support any efforts to eliminate facilities from the authority or to restrict its operations to toll bridges only.

"The council is now, has been and will continue to be interested in exploring the position of every group, official, or unofficial, in every county to attempt to reconcile differences of opinion where ever they may exist. It was in line with that policy that we met yesterday.

"As you know, the San Francisco city attorney has issued a legal opinion questioning the constitutionality and legality of bringing various facilities into the authority, including the Golden Gate Bridge, the seaports and airports.

"The council, as was made clear before the board of supervisors committee, had the services of experienced and competent legal and financial experts in drafting the authority legislation and has no reason to doubt that Senate Bill 576 is legal in every respect.

"TO REITERATE: the Bay Area Council does not subscribe in any way, shape or form to the personal views, as distinguished from the legal objections, of Holm and Ross that the authority should be constituted to include toll bridges only.

"The purpose of the authority is to bring home rule and greater prosperity to the entire Bay Area by consolidating, under one efficient and aggressive management, the bridge, seaport and airport facilities of the area, and to bring these facilities into the authority in an orderly and legal manner, under terms agreed upon with the people and local governments involved."

Kaiser summarized the council's role in the development of the Golden Gate Authority plan, pointing out that the council had taken the lead in seeking a solution of one of the area's major problems.

He concluded his remarks saying that there were other problems facing the area which the council would take an active role in solving.

Myhre Appointed County Animal Control Officer

Charles A. Myhre has been appointed Animal Control Director effective Wednesday, according to A. L. Seeley, agricultural commissioner.

This is a new position in Contra Costa County and Myhre will be responsible for the operation of the new county animal control centers, according to Seeley.

Myhre is a native of St. Paul, Minnesota, graduated from Richmond High School, and received his A.B. from the University of California in business administration and criminology in 1955.

Except for two years return to the U. S. Navy, Contra Costa has had the services of Myhre since 1949 in the sheriff's department where he has held the position of detective.

Mr. and Mrs. Myhre reside at 283 Belva Lane, Pleasant Hill, with their three children.

IT WILL BEND

One reason why wood is such a preferred material for construction of homes in earthquake and tornado threat areas is because of its high resistance to breakage. Actually, wood frames of stout Douglas fir lumber will withstand great stresses and shock for short durations, while other material will shatter under the impact.

OIL CHANGES

How often do you change the oil in your car? Every 1000 miles? 1500 miles? 2000 miles? The proper mileage interval for oil changes depends entirely upon the type of driving you do. If most of your driving consists of short trips of five or six miles, it is recommended that the oil be changed every 1000 miles. If your driving consists of both short trips and long trips (15 miles or more) changing oil every 1500 miles is about right. If all of your driving is long trips at highway speeds, you can go 2000 or more miles between oil changes. Follow the recommendations of your car's manufacturer in relation to the kind of driving you do. Your car will run better and go longer without overhauling if you do.

Agate Hurlers, Hitters Open Play

Foothill Division Teams, Pleasant Hill Rams Going

The foothill division baseball teams opened league play yesterday when Las Lomas played at Miramonte, Piedmont stormed San Ramon and the Acalanes Dons, who drew a bye, played a practice tilt with DeAnza High at Richmond.

Las Lomas and Acalanes looked to be the teams to beat with San Ramon and Miramonte the dark horse. Piedmont, who hasn't played any practice games, is really an unknown quantity and could be a surprise.

THE LAS LOMAS Knights lost Clark Ransome, a top flight pitcher and hitter, when he suffered a broken bone in his foot in the season's final basketball game.

Don Hopkins, the other regular pitcher, has been doing top work and much will depend on how the rest of the staff holds up.

The Dons have a veteran club at Acalanes with a first rate pitcher in Mike Kritscher, a quick and subtle southpaw.

A PAIR OF GOOD sophomore right handers in Tom Strain and Denny Tull back Kritscher up in the throwing department.

On paper it looks like a pennant battle down to the wire as the five clubs play out a three round schedule. Games on tap next week are as follows:

Tuesday: Piedmont at Miramonte, Acalanes at Las Lomas, San Ramon Bye.

Thursday: Acalanes at San Ramon, Piedmont at Las Lomas and Miramonte draws a bye.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD Dianne Howell, won the National Indoor 12-year and under solo title as the United States Sychronizer Swimming Championships got underway in Long Beach. Dianne swims in the Howell pool with her sister Debbe, who also qualified as the youngest entrant in the matches.

Salmoneers' Law Changes Tomorro Ends Tomorrow

Any ocean angler who catches a salmon during the first part of April will be caught red-handed—or at least red-fingered—under a new fish and game regulation which requires all sport-caught salmon to be marked with a red dye stripe during the closed commercial fishing season.

The new regulation, which goes into effect tomorrow, was adopted by the State Fish and Game Commission as a means of discouraging the commercial sale of sport-caught salmon.

Sportsmen can put their dye away for a while on April 15, when the commercial salmon fishing season opens. But they'll need it again this fall.

The commercial season runs from April 15 to September 15.

The new regulation requires that each sport-caught salmon be marked from head to tail on both sides with a half-inch wide stripe of bright red coloring. This can be of any "permanent USP certified food or drug coloring."

Ordinary food coloring sold in most grocery stores, or even left over Easter egg dye, will probably fill the bill, the Department of Fish and Game observes.

For those who want to keep their fingers clean, one or two manufacturers have already come out with a dye in special dauber bottles. These are being made available through bait shops in the major ocean salmon fishing areas.

Ice Hockey League Play Games Set

The first of five, and possibly six scheduled Far West Conference Ice Hockey play-off games will take place Sunday at 6 p.m. at Berkeley Iceland.

East Bay Champion Walnut Creek Warriors will face the Sacramento Ice Hockey Association champs, and the winner will emerge Northern California Champions.

Walnut Creek, straight off a four game winning streak, found no real trouble in whipping the Berkeley Bears by a score of 7 to 2 in the East Bay Play-offs.

The somewhat recent additions to the team, plus the cream of the 'old guard' have combined to become a well knit unit, and capable of maintaining one of the top spots in the play-off series. Teams slated to see action in the Far West Conference Play-offs include Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Walnut Creek, and possibly Phoenix and Berkeley.

Sunday, Walnut Creek will field a team including such top skaters as Harry Harrison and Ken Simon, both of whom played for Colorado College; Mel Mullen of Denver University; John Hoffman who captained Princeton's Ice Hockey team while schooling there; Russ Tolchard out of the Class 'B' league in Canada, and Eric MacDonald, an All Coast star for the University of California.

Eric is now head coach of Walnut Creek's Junior league team, which will provide the halftime entertainment for the series by taking on Stockton's Junior team.

Steelhead Tags To be Returned

Anglers who have caught tagged steelhead in the Sacrament River or its tributaries are urged to turn their tags in to the Department of Fish and Game, 7722 Capitol Avenue, Sacramento, immediately.

At stake—some $500 in prizes to be given away by sportsmen's organizations, sporting goods stores and fishing camps and resorts. The merchandise awards are mainly items of fishing gear.

The lost of awards includes 18 cash prizes totalling $200, including a $50 first prize donated by Steelhead Unlimited and California Kamloops, Inc.

Tagging adult steelhead in the Sacramento River near Knights Landing is one phase of a nearly-completed cooperative study aimed at improving steelhead fishing. It is being undertaken cooperatively by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Steelhead Unlimited and California Kamloops, Inc., and the California Department of Fish and Game.

Through the efforts of these four organizations, well over one million yearling hatchery-reared steelhead, with a combined weight of more than 100,000 pounds, have been released in the upper Sacramento River system during the last seven years.

During the last six years an average of 2700 adult steelhead have been tagged and released annually. Anglers have returned about 800 tags each season, indicating about 30 per cent of the run is harvested each year.

Of Swimmers, Pools & Track Regulation Change

By ERWIN MATTSON

I see where Stanford and the University of California sent representatives to the national swim meet held back east last week.

Cal's lone representative was Jim Small who placed in one of the events while George Harrison representing Stanford won a first place.

BOTH ARE Acalanes grads and both are from Orinda.

Miramonte, the new Orinda prep school doesn't have a swim team this year, but all that will change when the new pool is put in for next season.

Las Lomas at the present is the power in the water sport and they appear to be well ahead of the field both in quality and quantity.

Acalanes dominated the water for years when they had a host of swimmers from Orinda way.

Club swimming in the Orinda area is at a high level.

PREDICTION OF THINGS TO COME:

Miramonte will have a top swimming team that will be the all time power.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

The recent tennis tournament held at the Orinda Country Club made full use of all courts in the area due to the extremely large turnout from throughout the northern part of the state.

The official title of the event was the Orinda Junior Tournament and the Northern California Jaycee Championships.

Piedmont's Tom Edlefsen, a 6-2 performer, won top honors in the 18 and under division when he defeated Bobby Siska 6-1, 6-3 in the finals.

EDLEFSEN and REDD Witt will represent Northern California in the National Tournament to be held at Phoenix, Arizona in August.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Look over Danville way I see where a pert young miss of 11 years, Dianne Howell by name made the sports headlines when she won first place in the 12 year and under solo title in the United States Synchronized Swimming Championships at Long Beach.

Dianne representing the Howell swim club wrapped the title up at the NuPike Plunge in Long Beach when she put on a solo event called "Cupid Cuts a Caper." Earlier she had won the Junior Stunt competition.

Dianne, who is in her second year of synchronized swimming defeated runner up Nellie Lawson of the Nu-Pike swim club.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

One of the track events that has changed this year is the discus sometimes called the platter due to its dish shape.

DISTANCES TOSSED have been in the 140-150 foot area in many cases for the winners in the limited number of meets held to date.

The marks have impressed many who didn't realize that the varsity now throws the smaller discus which was used by the Bees in the past. It is lighter and smaller.

STRANGELY ENOUGH not everyone has been able to throw the lighter discus much farther and many have had difficulty adjusting.

It has a different "feel" and hand size among other things enters into it.

Many also get a "mental block" which very often limits performance.

SNOW SCOOPS

Boero's Sport Shop in Walnut Creek has cancelled the lift ticket contest. Not enough skiers had entered to make it interesting and worth while.

In every major far west ski area, there were all sorts of races.

At Yosemite's Badger Pass, the Slalom championships were held with around three feet of packed snow on the slopes.

Easter week was itself just one big event at the Sugar Bowl. There were activities for the whole family.

Some of the races there and most other races are controlled by the Far West Ski Association. If you are really interested in skiing you should join this group.

There are many membership benefits and the cost is nominal.

Spring snow conditions with high temperatures are found through out the Sierra. The snow fall of last week was a relief to most skiers and lodge owners, but it seems as though summer is just around the corner.

Bob McSorely and Tom Broatch went to Soda Springs to try it out there.

In passing, I was surprised at the amount of forging going on up in the Tahoe Ski area, especially in South Tahoe. Ted Brown, Lloyds of London agent, is now selling forgery insurance in that area.

Blind Nine Match Held

Mrs. Jack Spongberg picked up a good stroke at the Diablo Country Club to rack up a 42-8½-33½ Blind Nine to nab Class A play.

Other Class A scores were:

Mrs. Peter Albera, 43-9-34; Mrs. Arthur Mohr, 47-12½-34.

Class B, Mrs. Dean McDowell, 44-11-33; Mrs. Art Brunkhorst, 45-11½-33½; Mrs. Ken Cannon, 46-10-36.

Class C, Mrs. Nelson Stewart, 47-13-34; Mrs. Gordon Van Nuys, 51-16½-34½; Mrs. Everett Goins, 48-13-35.

Knight Machine Dumps Red Devils In 1-0 Ball Game

The Las Lomas Knights varsity baseball team toppled the Diablo Red Devils from the undefeated ranks Tuesday afternoon when they defeated them in a close, tough ball game 1-0.

Don Hopkins, the Knights big right-hander went the route to set the visitors down.

ONE LAS LOMAS error marred an otherwise perfect game in the field and the Devils did manage some consolidation from the fact they outhit the Walnut Creek nine five to one.

The game's lone run came in the fifth after Ron Lichti, Diablo's All League righthander, had yielded the mound duty to Lee Gosichin. Lichti had set the Knights down with regularity as had Hopkins for the Knights up to this point.

Gosichin started off well enough when he struck out Eric Nankivel, but got into trouble when he walked Bob Samuels and hit Clark Harris with a pitched ball to make it two on and one away.

Catcher Dick Dodge had a 3-2 count on him when Diablo coach Bruce Iverson pulled a hit by putting Lichti back in.

THE PLAY BACKFIRED when Lichti walked Dodge to plug the bases and Bob Morris laid down a bunt to score what turned out to be the game's only run. Samuels came across on the play.

Neither club scored the rest of the way and the Knights wound up with a win over the up to then undefeated Red Devils.

WORLD OF WOOD

Need a new home? Many people do, and it's comforting to know that if all the homes in the nation were to burn down all at once, there is enough lumber growing in the state of Oregon to rebuild every dwelling in the U.S. Multiply that by the amount of timber growing in other parts of the country and you can see that wood-wise the country's in fine shape.

Track, Golf Play Interest Mounting

Track looms high on the horizon of prep sports with Varsity and Bee teams competing in the 13 event divisions each week with all hands pointing for division, league, north coast and eventually state meets.

The meet of the Foothill Division promises to be a good one with some top marks each one of which will be a record in as much as this is the first year of the division.

MEETS THIS afternoon find Piedmont at Alameda, Las Lomas and John Swett are in a triangular meet at Miramonte High starting at 3:30.

Acalanes meets Berkeley High in the first home meet at the Lafayette oval with the opening 120 yard hurdle race getting started at 3:30.

ON THE LINKS, the Foothill Division golf play opened March 16 with matches following yesterday.

The next round of play gets off Monday with San Ramon at Acalanes, Miramonte at Piedmont and Las Lomas drawing the bye.

Miramonte Gets by Rams; Wins Game After Trailing

The Miramonte Matador horsehide crew took to the road Tuesday afternoon and found it to their liking as they edged the Pleasant Hill Rams 4-3 to chalk up their second win of the young season.

Miramonte took the lead after three scoreless innings of ball when they scored a pair of runs in the top of the fourth.

THE RUNS CAME when Dave Rhoda was given life on an error when a fly ball to center was dropped.

Vick Clarke was returned via the strike route. Things really popped when another fly ball to the outfield off the bat of Randy Young was dropped and a bad throw to third followed which sent Rhoda in with the run.

Rob Anthonisen followed with a ground ball out second to first that turned out to be a fielder's choice when Young scored on the play.

MIRAMONTE'S LEAD was short lived when a rally found the Rams pushing across three runs of their own in the bottom of the fifth.

It came about when Jim Maples the lead off hitter walked and Mike Slusher in a pinch hit role made it "two ducks on the pond" when he drew a base on balls.

Catcher George Adams hit a sharp grounder to second baseman Bob Ellermeyer who threw wide in an attempted force at third and all hands were safe as Maples scored.

DON LINDEAU followed with a squeeze bunt to bring Slusher in with the tying run and when pitcher Bruce Hilger threw wide to first after fielding the ball, Adams came in with the go-ahead run: number three.

The inning ended without further scoring and neither club could get runs on the scorebook in the sixth.

IN THE FATAL top of the seventh, Miramonte tallied what proved to be the winning runs when they collected two.

Catcher Bob Welch walked to start the frame only to get picked off by the pitcher.

Bob Ellermeyer started things for sure when he walked and Brad Peters followed with a single.

Pete Yederdia grounded out to first unassisted, but advanced the runners when pinch hitter Vic Johnson hit a ground ball to short it proved to be the ball game as the throw to first was wild and both runners scored.

Rob Anthonisen throwing the final seventh for Miramonte received credit for the win when he shut the Rams out.

HE DID GET in hot water when he loaded the bases up with two down, but got out of it when Welch picked Sheperd off first.

Miramonte's box score showed a final four runs, four hits and six errors and three runs, one hit and four errors for Pleasant Hill.

Half Midget Race Club Formulated

Half midget racing enthusiasts in the area are making plans to form the first Half Midget Club in the Bay Area.

The initial meeting for this pioneer group was slated for last night at the Clayton Valley Youth Center.

The agenda included information on opening dates for Bay Area tracks, latest data on I.H.M.A. rules and news of other clubs being formed.

In addition, all committee action necessary to get the new club underway was carried out.

Pro-tem group chairman Dick Metcalfe announced individuals from Oakland and Antioch were on hand although the greater part of the membership is expected from the Walnut Creek-Pleasant Hill and Concord area.

The half midget cars can accomodate a full grown adult and are powered by four horsepower engines and reach speeds of 30 mph on a 1/20 mile oval track. They are equipped with a full line of safety features.

Ram Spring Sport Schedule Spurts Into Full Swing

The Pleasant Hill Rams have Easter vacation behind them and the spring sports competitive calendar is a full one from here on out.

Coach Lyle Palmer's baseball club had its first go at league play after a not too successful practice season which saw them drop games to Las Lomas, Alhambra and Miramonte and defeating Amador.

YESTERDAY, THEY were scheduled to start league play at Pacifica and Tuesday finds them in another league tilt as they host Clayton Valley.

The gymnastic team gets into the swing of things as coach Gordon Madduxbrings his charges to Fremont High in Oakland for a 7:30 p.m. meet today.

Tennis, which is having its best season ever, played an opening league match at Pacifica yesterday and goes to Clayton Valley Tuesday.

Thursday the tennis and baseball teams meet Antioch at the Windy City to round out the week's play.

THE RAM TRACK reserves went into action yesterday afternoon at Concord when they met the Diablo High extras.

This afternoon the Rams meet Antioch in a 3:30 dual meet at Antioch.

Wednesday the varsity thin clads meet Clayton Valley at the Pleasant Hill oval in another 3:30 affair.

THE RAM MERMEN get into the swim of things when they take part in a triangular meet at Livermore with Livermore High and Alhambra after having met Clayton Valley and Pacifica in another triangular meet in Pleasant Hill.

Wednesday finds another three way affair with Washington High and St. Mary's College coming to Pleasant Hill for a 3:30 meet.

E. J. CAREY CO. REALTORS

T. J. McKeegan To Lead County Fund Drive

Ed. J. J. McKeegan of Richmond was elected to succeed Duncan Kundsen of Lafayette as president of the Contra Costa United Fund, Inc., at the annual meeting held at the Richmond Auditorium.

McKeegan commented: "For many years I have been privileged to serve in the development and welfare of my community.

"In assuming this new responsibility I believe I am furthering my interests in the health, welfare and youth of our community and in our country.

"I welcome this opportunity to work with the many wonderful people who make up the Contra Costa United Fund and its affiliated agencies and am certain that with their cooperation we will make the United way of giving more successful."

Other business transacted at the meeting included the election of a slate of officers to serve with McKeegan for the ensuing year and an executive committee, a presentation and discussion on the proposals of an improved budget and allocation program for the Bay Area, and 37 new board members elected.

Other new officers for the 1959-60 term are Henley V. Worthington of Concord, Ben Goldberger of Pittsburg, Warren Brown Jr. of Richmond, Paul Boyd of Martinez, and Roy Matson of Martinez, vice presidents; and Charles D. Gable of Walnut Creek, treasurer.

Realtors to Attend Big Conference

Realtors and their sales staffs of Orinda, Moraga, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville, Alamo, Pleasant Hill and Concord on April 15 will attend the 12th annual education and sales conference to be presented by the California Real Estate Association, in the Oakland Auditorium.

As members of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, these realtors will learn still more about current financing of property in Contra Costa County from five recognized specialists.

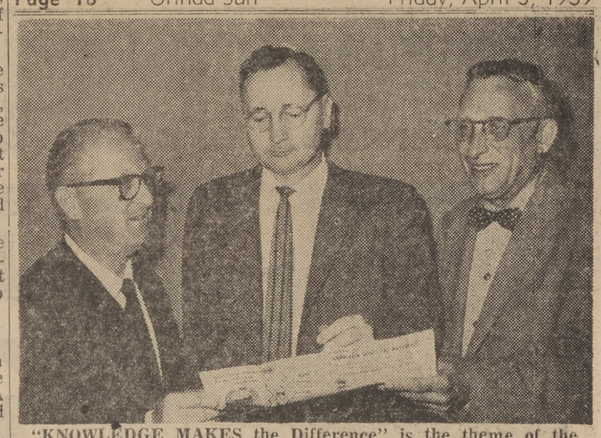
These local realtors will be taught the new techniques of evaluation, classifying properties and proposals in terms of financing by actual demonstrations.

Bill Hayward, president of the local realtors and co-participants in the coming conference said, "Economic conditions during the past 12 months have done a lot to emphasize the importance that factual knowledge is a must for any person who hopes to make real estate his permanent field and be a success in it.

"It is my observation that the fund of information to which realtors have access is the paramount reason for success coming to those who use it."

NEW LIFE

A dull, unimaginative room can be given new life with the addition of a textured ceiling. A world of dimension can be added with wood decking.



"KNOWLEDGE MAKES the Difference" is the theme of the State Real Estate Association's educational and sales conference, April 15, in Oakland. It will draw many central Contra Costa realtors, real estate executives, including Bill Hayward, Contra Costa Real Estate Board president, Wayne Bailey, the board's executive vice president; and Allan Ingalls, State Association regional vice president; listed left to right.

Dumping Decreases As Jail Term Threat Made

The threat of tightened enforcement of state and county laws against illicit dumping has resulted in lessening of the volume of paper and other debris along the county's roadsides, according to W. G. Buchanan of the board of supervisors.

THE CAMPAIGN started April 1 and is scheduled to continue until May 15, with the county's newspapers carrying the burden of educating the public to the bad effects of littering the highways.

Buchanan said reports have come in from law enforcement agencies, as well as from county health and public works department employees, indicating that the volume of debris thrown from moving automobiles had decreased slightly even before the formal start of the campaign.

"OUR COMMITTEE has found, during the five and a half years it has been functioning, that a great deal of highway littering is caused by well-meaning but thoughtless drivers who need only to be reminded," Buchanan said.

"Actually they cause as much litter in the aggregate as the illegal dumper who throws large quantities of garbage along secluded roadways, rather than to take it to a public dump."

Buchanan said that there are at least five public dumping grounds in various parts of the county for the convenience of the public and the organized scavenger companies. Most of these, he said, are open daily, including Sundays, with attendants on duty.

He listed:

VINE HILL DUMP—Open daily 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and closed only on major holidays. The dump, the Acme Fill Site, is located two miles east of Martinez, a mile north of Pacheco Boulevard at the end of Arthur Road.

ANTIOCH DUMP — Open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. except on Mondays, Tuesdays and major holidays. Located southwest of Antioch on Somersville Road, a mile and a third to Paso Corto Road and east a third mile to the dump.

PITTSBURG DUMP — Open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. except Sundays. Located adjacent to the Antioch Dump.

WEST CONTRA COSTA DUMP —Open 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily except major holidays. Located west of San Pablo at end of Road 20, one mile west of highway on Road 20 to its end; left one block, right one half mile to dump.

BRENTWOOD DUMP — Open daily 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. except major holidays. Located west of Brentwood on Balfour Road to Briones Valley Road, south to dump.

THE CLEANUP committee will meet in mid-April to hear reports on the results of the anti-litter campaign and discuss enforcement measures with Capt. R. R. Magill of the highway patrol and Harry Ramsay of the sheriff's office.

The officers have promised vigilant enforcement of the state and county regulations which set up fines and jail terms for convicted litter dumpers.

Merry Mixers Dance Tomorrow

Are you single? Meet your single neighbors at the Merry-Mixers, a social club for single men and women. The club will hold a dance party tomorrow at the Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Club, 2800 North Main Street, at 8:30 p.m.

Regular parties are held on the first Saturday and the third Friday of each month. Any single person age 25 to 45 wishing further information or regarding membership may call YE 4-6635 or YE 4-0584.

"ASK FOR HER at your local nursery during Can-Can Week," is the advice of local nurserymen. "Kick up your heels and plant," they say during the Can-Can Carnival of Nursery Values, April 3 to 12. This is the first state-wide gardening event ever to be held in California. It is sponsored by the California Association of Nurserymen (C.A.N.)

'Can-Can Value Carnival' Set by Area Nurserymen

Local nurseries are sponsoring a "Can-Can Carnival of Nursery Values," from April 3 - April 12.

They are members of the California Association of Nurserymen —thus the "Can-Can" theme.

DURING THIS promotion, nurseries are offering timely values for garden lovers of this area.

Wise shoppers will take advantage of this sale to bring new life and beauty to their gardens and lawns.

At nurseries where the C.A.N. green, yellow and white emblem is displayed, you will find first quality merchandise at honest prices.

Also, you can be assured of receiving reliable information from a trained nurseryman with a good horticultural background.

C.A.N. MEMBERS will never sell you anything that is not meant to grow and prosper in this area.

If you love growing things—and who doesn't?—you will find outstanding values during the "Can-Can Carnival of Nursery Values."

Remember, this sale is for 10 days only — from April 3 to 12. Visit C.A.N. members during these sale days.

Look for giant eight-foot banners and C.A.N. emblems.

You'll be glad you did!

There's Treasure Waiting For You Real, Real Soon!

Introducing: Suburbia Today! This big, full-color rotogravure with The Sun the Friday of the first full week of every month, magazine section will be included begining this coming April. There is a treasure of interesting reading and fine pictures in store for you in Suburbia Today.

Suburbia Today will come to you once a month as a part of The Sun. You will probably never read a story in its date-lined Moscow, eyebrows will not be raised at the Supreme Court, nor will the editors help with the reorganization of the Pentagon, Suburbia Today concerns are more immediate.

WHAT MAKES a day rewarding, in spite of commuting and the price of eggs? How are the teenagers making out in vacation jobs? And how are the PTAs solving the teacher shortage? What are people looking at and laughing at? What are the new ideas for living — the little sparks of imagination that light up house and home?

In words and pictures it tells about the things in which you are interested . . . it captures the zestful atmosphere of suburban life.

Suburbia Today will be unique in that virtually every article will have some bearing on life in the suburban scene.

Do you like good food? Do you like to cook? Do you like to try new recipes? Then you will enjoy the colorful pages of recipes that is one of the best-loved features of Suburbia Today magazine.

This exciting 24-page (or more) magazine will appear as a supplement of The Sun. A different group of a dozen or more recipes will be supplied each month, complete with pictures in full color and monotone.

BY SAVING the recipe pages of Suburbia Today, you will acquire hundreds of America's best recipes for your family's delight.

Be sure to get your first copy of Suburbia Today with The Sun.

Let Toads Sit on 'Em!

Recently, several children who had eaten wild mushrooms in Contra Costa County required treatment by their physicians.

"Mushrooms are tasty, but their close relatives, the toadstools are poisonous and you can't tell them apart", said Dr. Warren A. Ketterer, assistant health officer.

After each of our rains, Contra Costa's mushroom and toadstool crops flourish. With succulent-looking delicacies popping up on all the hillsides, scores of "mushroom sportsmen" are out on the hunt.

"If you go picking—enjoy the fresh air and the search—but do not eat these dangerous prizes," adds the Health Department's Accident Prevention Chief.

Parents are urged to remove mushrooms from their yards regularly before their children pick them.

If the youngsters unwittingly eat these "wild mushrooms" they may come down with severe diarrhea, cramps and prostration. These are signs of "mushroom" poisoning and require medical attention.

Big Supply of Bedding Plants Available Now

Here are things to do in your garden this week:

1. Lawn areas that have become compacted should be worked over with a coring tool and enriched with good new loam or steer manure.
2. Deciduous magnolias that need pruning should have the job done now. Cuts an inch or more in diameter should be painted with sealing compound.
3. Clip hedges frequently if you want them to fill in. Privet performs best when clipped to a slight taper from top to bottom.
4. A big supply of annual bedding plants is available. You can get both spring and early summer bloom from most of them planted now.
5. Watch for black aphis on new camellia growth. Be sure to get inside the tender, curled young leaves with spraying. Ask your nurseryman for the right spray material.

PICK WHEN RIPE

Folks who protest when a stand of "young" timber 75-100 years old is cut have probably never stopped to realize that trees are grown as a crop, just as grain and fruit are grown as crops. The giant Douglas firs of the Pacific Northwest reach their maturity at the age of 160 years and should be harvested before they fall prey to the ills of old age: disease and insects which spoil their wood.

Beautiful plants are completely dependent on healthy roots, but roots are healthy only if their delicate tips get the right amount of moisture and water from conditioned soil. Mix 2 to 4 inches of Sunshine into the top 8 inches of your soil and have strong-rooted plants — beautiful plants. The reason: it's Sphagnum, best because it has long-lasting — and the highest — organic content, and holds the most water.

Want that Tropical Look? Plant a Queen Palm Tree

The tropical look is easy to come by in California. North of the Tehachapis—as well as south—you'll find plants that could ease into an island setting without one bit of make up.

TAKE THE PALMS for instance. We don't try to grow the tall coconut palm, but we do have others.

The California Association of Nurserymen reports that member nurseries stock several varieties, some of which have a definite tropical appearance. The stately, slender-trunk Queen Palm is an example—growing to 40 or more feet tall with a feathery crown of arching fronds.

It is best where it gets plenty of water.

Also in the palm family and widely adapted are the reed-like Lady Palms or Bamboo Palms. These grow in decorative clumps, seldom more than 8 feet tall, and are well suited to a corner of the patio.

MOISTURE and rich soil are preferred.

The Dracaena Palm is not really a palm, but resembles one. It is seen in all sections, usually on the single trunk to 10 or 15 feet high with a full head of sword-like leaves.

BANANA TREE is common in southern California and also grown in protected spots in the north. It is definitely tropical looking and true to its looks, demands a warm spot, rich soil and plenty of water. Try it with Cannas or Bird of Paradise.

THE ANCIENT Greeks used Acanthus leaves for decoration, which suggests anything but a tropical background for the plant.

Nevertheless, it is tropical in appearance and well suited to furthering the impression in drier spots.

Other tropic types: New Zealand Flax, an accent shrub par excellence; Paper-Reed, ideal for pool-side plantings; Fatsia, a cool-looking, big leaf evergreen.

We suggest you consider them all where a feeling of lushness is desired.

Girls' Spring Finds Waists Back Again

Little girls have their normal waistlines bac kthis spring! The high-rise look, important in adult styles, is more a matter of trim than fit for children.

Popular young spring dresses have bouffant skirts, big collars and all manner of cummerbunds, obis and wide sashes.

Party dresses have never betn more elegant. Flower-sized embroideries mark midriffs or climb o nskirts. Row upon row of lace trims skirts. Ruching, fluting and tucking decorate bodices.

There are also many two-part dresses. These include pleated-skirt dresses with over-blouses

Violators Beware! It's Traffic School Time!

The Walnut Creek Judicial District's first driver imporovement school will commence operations on the evening of April 6 at Acalanes High School, announced Judge Betsy FitzGerald Rahn.

The opening of the schools fulfills one of the campaign promises made by udge Rahn in her campaign for the judgeship of the Walnut Creek udicial District.

THE DRIVER Improvement School is made possible by the cooperation and combined efforts of personnel of the Walnut Creek Judicial Court, Art D. Dambacher, director of adult edcuation, Acalanes High School District; Chief Leigh M. Brilliant of the Walnut Creek Police Department and Captain Russell Magill of the Martinez office of the California Highway Patrol.

Officer Jack Francis of the Walnut Creek Police Department will be the instructor of the class.

Driver Improvement School will be held at Acalanes High School. The session will include two 2-hour periods commencing at 7:30 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday nights, April 6 and 8.

Students will be assigned to the class by Judge Rahn as part of the sentence for certain traffic violations. The class will also be open without charge to any member of the public who cares to attend. Information as to subsequent dates on which the school will be held may be obtained from the Adult Education Department, Acalanes High School, or the Walnut Creek Police Department.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED that Driver Improvement School classes will be held once a month at first, and probably once every two weeks at a later time.

Persons who are found guilty of certain traffic violations are assigned to attend Driver Improvement School as part of their sentence for the violation, explained udge Rahn. Attendance for such violations is compulsory.

Officer Jack Francis, instructor for the school, was formerly an instructor in the Oakland Traffic School. He explained that the course of instruction will cover such subjects as a discussion of certain sections of the California Vehicle Code, violations which constitute major sources of accidents, stopping distances of automobiles at different speeds, general discussion of the relation between traffic violations and accident rate and others.

CHIEF LEIGH M. Brilliant of the Walnut Creek Police Department stated that statistics show that in areas which have such traffic schools in operation the violations of traffic laws have tended to decrease and the accident rate has dropped.

Minister Supports Annex To Walnut Creek for PH

James M. Crothers, minister, St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, today supported annexation to Walnut Creek as the "best possible course of action for Pleasant Hill."

Mr. Crothers in a letter to The Sun pointed out the question before the people of Pleasant Hill is not whether to be "country or city" but rather "to stop the trend of confusion and deterioration."

IN HIS LETTER, Mr. Crothers wrote:

"The question before the people of Pleasant Hill is not whether we are to be country or city. We are already a small city, and our population is growing daily. There is nothing we can do to stop more people from doing what we ourselves have done—come to Pleasant Hill.

"But we can stop the trend to confusion and deterioration. We can work for good planning, for good government, and for everything which can make this area a pleasure to live in.

"THIS MEANS that the citizens must take active responsibility to govern themselves in local government, either as a separate city or annexed to a neighboring one.

"There are real economies to be found in annexation to a going, progressive city. I personally favor annexation to Walnut Creek," he concluded.

WOOD HUNGRY?

The U. S. is a wood-hungry nation, but it's a wood-producing nation, too. In the Pacific Northwest state of Oregon alone, 434 billion board feet of timber is growing right now. It would take seven times the number of railroad freight cars now existing in the country to haul that amount of lumber. Of all the fine species growing in Oregon's forests, the Douglas fir rates special merit, accounting for 90% of the state's total lumber production.

Heart Gifts Aid Fellowships

"Contributions by the people of Contra Costa County to the Heart Fund have helped to make possible the award of fellowships totalling $1,562,243 to 182 scientists across the country who are conducting research on diseases of the heart and blood vessels," it was announced this week by William C. McIntosh, President of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

The awards were made under the national research support program of the American Heart Association.

Of the Heart Fund contributions provided by the Contra Costa County Heart Association to support the national program aimed at combating the cardiovascular diseases, more than 50 per cent is allocated to research.

Watch Out For Ticks This Year

"Ticks are prevalent in many parts of Contra Costa County this year," Dr. John Baier, Assistant County Health Officer, said this week.

He explained that diseases spread by infected ticks are very rare in all but the Sierra and Cascade regions of California.

"One can protect himself from any possible danger of tick borne disease by a few simple procedures," Dr. Baier said.

A thorough search for the parasite immediately after outdoor activities and again at bed time or when bathing, is recommended.

Ticks generally locate about hairy areas. Remove them as soon as they are seen. If the tick is not easily removed, it may be suffocated by application of a thick coating of vaseline or other solid household fat.

After 20 minutes it may be extracted with tweezers or rubber gloves.

When removing ticks from animal pets, the hands should likewise be protected by rubber gloves.

Tick bite wounds may be treated as any other minor abrasion. Ticks have been known to cause a severe form of paralysis if the head remains attached for hours or days.

Rocky Mountain spotted fever and colorado tick fever are more unlikely. If any illness should occur within three to 10 days after the bite, consult your physician at once.

ALWAYS FAVORITE

When using fine prestige woods like Douglas fir and west coast hemlock for wall paneling and built-ins, clear finishes which capture the wood's natural coloring and grain patterns will always be the favorite.

Wagner Chorale to Present Youth Concert, Sunday

The Roger Wagner Chorale will appear in Walnut Creek, Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Las Lomas High School auditorium. The concert will be under the auspices of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts.

Headed by its French-born director, Roger Wagner, the chorus is now on its fourth cross-country tour.

This year, the youthful choristers, with their conductor plus the outstanding duo-pianists Stecher and Horowitz, are appearing in more than 70 cities from coast to coast.

ON SUNDAY, the Chorale will present as some of their selections, two folk songs, "My Old Kentucky Home" and "O Lemuel" and two sea chanties, "Lowlands" and "Drummer and the Cook."

Stecher and Horowitz will present three waltzes by Brahms and "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" by Franz Liszt.

Roger Wagner founded his Chorale in 1946. Since that time it has performed almost every major choral work in appearances with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, the Hollywood Bowl Symphony Orchestra, and many other of the nation's most prominent symphonic organizations.

Adaptability to any form of music is a hallmark of the Roger Wagner Chorale, whether in concert, over the airwaves, on television or on the motion picture screen, say sponsors.

THE ROGER WAGNER Chorale was invited to England to participate in London's Coronation Festivities, the only American singing group to receive such an invitation.

The Chorale has recorded a great many of their selections, doing it exclusively with Capitol. As in their other work, their repertoire is wide and varied.

Melvin Stecher and Norman Horowitz became duo-pianists eight years ago. Both are New Yorkers, and each had a highly creditable list of symphony and solo performances before reaching the age of 20.

This is the last concert of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concert series.

However, on April 19, a bonus concert, the Sixth Army Band, will be given. Both concerts are open only to season ticket holders.

Park Council Wants Mt. Diablo Park Money Kept

The Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council, while not against full development of the Franks tract as a park area, is also in favor of keeping all funds alloted for expansion of Mt. Diablo State Park for the purpose.

Recently, proposals have been made that the funds alloted for Mt. Diablo State Park be transferred to Franks tract.

A letter by the council to the State Park Commission read in part as follows:

". . . WITH SUCH relatively minor expenditures slated for Contra Costa County as these two projects entail, we are bitterly disappointed that either one should not be carried out as planned.

"We have strongly supported both and we continue to do so. We now understand that rising land values have made the Franks Tract appropriation inadequate.

"Since this project is already under way, and is highly popular, we are asked to relinquish the Mt. Diablo funds so that Franks Tract can be successfully completed.

"It has been represented to our group that the Mt. Diablo expansion probably will not be carried out anyway, because of its low priority and the overall shortage of funds for the five-year plan. If we felt that this kind of choice were inevitable, we would most certainly support the proposal.

"WE WOULD rather see a completely Franks Tract project than a half-completed one, with Mt. Diablo lost regardless of the outcome.

"However, we are not satisfied that this choice is a fair or a real one. Each park project should stand on its own merits.

"The question of where to obtain additional funds for Franks Tract seems to us a separate one and not related to Mt. Diablo.

"We do not believe the solution is to sacrifice one small project in our county to another. Mt. Diablo has a deep and warm place in our hearts. We believe that it, too, should be considered on its own merits.

"We do not feel that a serious and sincere evaluation of the Mt. Diablo project has yet been made, in an effort to determine whether it can be accomplished within the five-year plan.

"THE CONTRA COSTA Park and Recreation Council therefore opposes any transfer of funds allocated to Mt. Diablo until we are satisfied that this has been done. We respectfully urge the State Park Commission to consider activating the Mt. Diablo project on its own merits at this time.

"If sufficient evidence (which we have not yet seen) indicates that this cannot be done, then we would with extreme reluctance and regret feel forced to concur in the protested transfer.

"However, we believe such an action is premature, since it will not be known for some time exactly how many dollars will be needed to complete the Franks Tract project.

"Any action taken now should therefore guarantee that any surplus of funds remaining after acquisition of the planned minimum at Franks Tract will be expended on Mt. Diablo.

Home Builders Auxiliary Goes Hawaiian

"Night and you and Blue Hawaii" can be your dream come true when you join the Associated Home Builders Auxiliary and their friends at their annual fun night—"A Night in Hawaii.'

Tomorrow 7 p.m. the group will gather at the Berkeley Elks Club, 2018 Allston Way, Berkeley. An enchanted evening is arranged. First a lovely fresh flower lei, soft island music, cocktails straight from "Kona", and heavenly luau will be the food, with authentic Hawaiaan entertainment. So come prepared to be as gay as the gayest Hawaiian clothes you can find to wear, start practicing the hula because you'll need the experience for a "Night in Hawaii." Then dancing until 1 a.m.

Chairmen for the evening are Mmes. Scott Bonds and Dan Bodily. Hostesses will be executive board members, the Mmes. Elvin Van Ness, Louis Rahlves, James Robello, Waldo Anderson, J. E. Carlson, Edgar Elliott, Arthur Jacobsen. Don Cass, Lloyd Bradhoff, J. S. Mullen. Walter Helmers, Leslie Dawe, Harold Frazier and August F. Rahlves.
